Robertson Davies provides portraits of literary personalities advice on writers and writing and comments on academia and the modern world Whether giving advice to schoolgirls discussing the Age of Aquarius as seen by alchemists exploring Jungian psychology in the theater and insanity in literature or telling us how to design a haunted house Davies brings to all his subjects the same intensity and marvelous craftsmanship that are the hallmarks of his fictional creations The Manticore Robertson Davies,2005-12 In which David Staunton continues his psychoanalysis in Zurich and falls in love with his analyst Doctor Helena Von Haller Aspects of Robertson Davies' Novels Victor J. Lams,2009 Completing the survey begun in Lams Cornish Trilogy volume Aspects of Robertson Davies Novels discusses the Salterton and Deptford trilogies along with Davies last two novels Murther it is best understood as an implicit spiritual history of Canada which is adumbrated in the generational experience of a single Canadian family The Cunning Man concludes Davies career with a narrative as rewardingly complex as any of the Cornish trilogy novels Fifth Business Robertson Davies,2002-05-30 Ramsay is a man twice born a man who has returned from the hell of the battle grave at Passchendaele in World War I decorated with the Victoria Cross and destined to be caught in a no man s land where memory history and myth collide As Ramsay tells his story it begins to seem that from boyhood he has exerted a perhaps mystical perhaps pernicious influence on those around him His apparently innocent involvement in such innocuous events as the throwing of a snowball or the teaching of card tricks to a small boy in the end prove neither innocent nor innocuous Fifth Business stands alone as a remarkable story told by a rational man who discovers that the marvelous is only another aspect of the real Character study in Robertson Davies' The Deptford trilogy Renata Žugič,Mirko Jurak,2002 Studies in Robertson Davies' Deptford Trilogy Robert Gilford Lawrence,Samuel L. Macey,1980 Robertson Davies' Deptford Trilogy Robert Frederick Reid,1980 Evil in Robertson Davies' Deptford Trilogy Nancy Powell (Beth),1973 Penguin Modern Classics Fifth Business Robertson Davies,2014-08-19 Fifth Business which one critic said was as masterfully executed as anything in the history of the novel might be described simply as the life of a schoolteacher named Dunstan Ramsay But such description would not even suggest the dark currents of love ambition vengeance and death that flow through this powerful work cast in the form of Ramsay s memoirs Fifth Business is the first novel in the celebrated Deptford Trilogy which also includes The Manticore and World of Wonders it also stands alone as the story of a rational man who discovers that the marvelous is only another aspect of the real

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
