The History and Literature of the Early Church James Orr,1913 Simon Peter in Scripture and Memory Markus Bockmuehl,2012-11-01 After Jesus Peter is the most frequently mentioned individual both in the Gospels and in the New Testament as a whole He was the leading disciple the rock on which Jesus would build his church How can we know so little about this formative figure of the early church World renowned New Testament scholar Markus Bockmuehl introduces the New Testament Peter by asking how first and second century sources may be understood through the prism of living memory among the disciples of the apostolic generation and the students of those disciples He argues that early Christian memory of Peter underscores his central role as a bridge building figure holding together the diversity of first century Christianity Drawing on more than a decade of research Bockmuehl applies cutting edge scholarship to the question of the history and traditions of this important but strangely elusive figure Bockmuehl provides fresh insight into the biblical witness and early Christian tradition that New Testament students and professors will value T&T Clark Handbook of the Early Church Ilaria L.E. Early Church ,1982 The Early History of Woodstock Manor and Its Environs Edward Marshall,1873 History, Memory and Nostalgia in Literature and Culture Regina Rudaitytė,2018-07-27 The advent of the new age has alerted us to the conflicted nature of historical memory which defined the 20th century while simultaneously assaulting us with new historical upheavals that demand responsibility and critical consideration As the historical text bears traces of the writing subject the element of deception is remarkable meaning historical memory easily lends itself to forgery and false and subjective projections As such how do we think about the past about history about memory and how does memory function Is history an objective account a collection of dry reliable facts Is it an imaginative narrative tinged with nostalgia a projection of our wishful thinking the workings of our subjective perceptions and attitudes our states of mind The essays in this volume focus on the relevance of the past to the present and future in terms of the shifting attitudes to personal and collective experiences that have shaped dominant Western critical discourses about history memory and nostalgia The contributors here take issue with the epistemological hermeneutic ethical and aesthetic dimensions of the representational practices through which we revisit and revise the meaning of the past
