Wonderplay Too Wonderplay Too:

Wonderplay, Too Fretta Reitzes, Beth Teitelman, 2007-08-17 The original Wonderplay is an enchanting playbook for parents looking to educate and delight kids from infancy through the toddler years Wonderplay Too picks up where the first book leaves off offering more than 200 games craft projects and cooking music and dance activities for kids ages 3-6 Developed by the 92nd Street Y this brand new book highlights today's parenting concerns including how to evaluate and limit video games computer time and TV and how working parents can make the most of their time with their kids

Wonderplay Too (Scholastic Edition) Fretta Reitzes, Publishing Perseus Publishing, Beth Teitelman, 92nd Street Y (New York, N.Y.). Parenting Center, 2007-06 Teaching Kindergarten Julie Diamond, Betsy Grob, Fretta Reitzes, 2015 Today's kindergarten teachers face enormous challenges to reach district mandated academic standards This book presents a model for 21st century kindergartens that is rooted in child centered learning and also shaped by the needs and goals of the present day Classroom teachers working with diverse populations of students and focusing on issues of social justice provide vivid descriptions of classroom life across urban and rural communities Teacher reflections and commentary from the editors link teacher decisions to principles of good practice Teaching Kindergarten illustrates how a progressive learning centered approach can not only meet the equity and accountability goals of the Common Core State Standards but go well beyond that to educate the whole child Book Features Rich examples of learner centered teaching in diverse public school settings Depictions of integrated curricula in science social studies math arts and language arts that address Common Core and other standards Connections to recent developmental research and pedagogy Programs promoting social and cultural awareness Photographs of children's projects and a list of children's books The teachers you are about to read tell stories no one has heard before at a time when it is difficult to hear the individual voices in the classroom No grade level needs this soul searching examination more than kindergarten This book maps a remarkable number of journeys toward this goal I hope teachers will be inspired to add their own voices to the process of renewal Vivian Gussin Paley internationally renowned educator author and classroom teacher We need this book It speaks eloquently to what good practice looks like in real schools as well as what it means to be a good teacher These are stories of amazing educators whose work addresses what equity is all about starting with 5 year olds It's too bad the next 12 years of school are not more like these kindergarten classrooms Deborah Meier education activist senior scholar at New York University's Steinhardt School of Education

Childhood Unbound Ron Taffel, 2010-04-13 Identifies the challenges facing parents as they raise their children in the early twenty first century and describes a parenting approach designed to encourage the good in kids of all ages while steering them away from the bad No Axe Too Small to Grind Joey Slinger, 1985 Slinger writes a humour column for the Toronto Star newspaper Here he has collected the best of those columns 1985 winner of the Stephen Leacock Memorial Medal for Humour Nickelodeon, 1916 Supporting Boys' Writing in the Early Years Julie Cigman, 2018-10-08 This second edition of Supporting Boys Writing in the Early Years shows how you can help boys to become confident and capable writers by supporting them to write in ways that make sense to them on the move outside and inside in dens in bushes in mud or sprawled on the floor dressed as superheroes The book reveals that a playful child centred approach can allow boys and girls to develop a writers voice raise attainment in writing and enhance all aspects of young children s development This new edition includes brand new examples case studies and photographs from over 200 recent early writing projects up to date references fully in line with the latest Early Years Foundation Stage EYFS documentation a response to the increased focus in schools on handwriting in particular on cursive handwriting a questioning of the place of objective led print in the classroom and a recommendation that environmental print should reflect learning rather than teaching imaginative ideas for developing oral and written storytelling a consideration of some of the ways in which challenging active play such as superhero and weapon play can be channelled into playful writing a greater discussion and challenging of the emphasis placed on outcomes over the process of learning and development Supporting Boys Writing in the Early Years will help you to create a truly enabling environment for writing and supports the belief that writing experiences should be EPIC Everywhere Playful and Purposeful Inspirational and Contextualised It is an essential read for all practitioners who want the children in their setting to flourish as motivated and creative writers
