The Development Dictionary @25 Aram Ziai, 2020-05-21 Few books in the history of Development Studies have had an impact like The Development Dictionary A Guide to Knowledge as Power which was edited by Wolfgang Sachs and published by Zed Books in 1992 The Development Dictionary was crucial in establishing what has become known as the Post Development PD school This volume is devoted to the legacy of The Development Dictionary and to discussing Post Development This book originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly    The Development and Antidevelopment Debate Dr Martha Jalali Rabbani, 2013-03-28 Reflecting on the philosophical assumptions that sustain the development debate Rabbani analyzes how the modern project of development and the antidevelopment discourse reduce the human condition to a struggle for self preservation and likewise social and international cooperation to a strategic and self defeating process The book centers on core inconsistencies in the rationale of both discourses as they stand for individual autonomy collective self determination and mutual respect Building these social goals around the requirement of non interference in individual or collective affairs neither discourse can practically enhance nor coherently sustain respect to people s freedom and diversity The author argues that any real alternative to the normative reductions and actual destructions carried on by international development theory and practice would have to recover the non contingent solidarity implied in people s search for self understanding Awareness of this human condition in its turn actively fosters relations of universal inclusion and global friendship Instructors and graduate and undergraduate students in the fields of peace studies development studies political sciences and political philosophy professionals and volunteers working in governmental and non governmental organizations and development agencies will find this volume ideally fit for purpose

Isaak August Dorner,Issac August Dorner,1889 Whose Development? Emma Crewe,Elizabeth Harrison,1998-12 This book is an ethnography of development in practice It builds on recent work in the anthropology of development in its examination of the evolution and persistence of a number of key ideas about gender technology and race It explores how these are rooted in both material practices and ideologies notably the Enlightenment and colonialism but goes beyond previous studies which have tended to focus mainly on the apparently monolithic power of the developers The authors argue for a more nuanced account of power through analysis of the relationship between individual agency and structural constraint Their fascinating study shows how a simple dichotomy between us the developers and them the victims of development misconstrues the nature of the processes involved The History of Creation Or The Development of the Earth and Its Inhabitants by the Action of Natural Causes Ernst Haeckel,1892
