Future Practices of Citizenship in Asia and the West Gregory Bracken, Paul Rabé, Nurul Azreen Azlan, 2025-10-01 Future Practices of Citizenship in Asia and the West investigates some of the greatest challenges facing society in the twenty first century including the struggle for rights and recognition by indigenous peoples women migrants and the young as well as the dampening effects some government responses to COVID 19 have had on artistic freedom and citizen participation The ill effects of digitisation on citizenship however are tempered by some more positive approaches from grass roots activities Perhaps the most acute challenge facing the world today is climate change an issue that can be both positive and negative depending on how we respond to it All the papers in this book share a people centred approach based around Michel Foucault's Care of the Self

The Encyclopedia of Housing, Second Edition Andrew T. Carswell, 2012-05-31 Since publication of the groundbreaking Encyclopedia of Housing in 1998 many issues have assumed special prominence within this field and indeed within the global economy For instance the global economic meltdown was spurred in large part by the worst subprime mortgage crisis we ve seen in our history On a more positive note the sustainability movement and green development has picked up considerable steam and given the priorities and initiatives of the current U S administration this will only grow in importance and increased attention has been given in recent years to the topic of indoor air quality Within the past decade as well the Baby Boom Generation began its march into retirement and senior citizenship which will have increasingly broad implications for retirement communities and housing assisted living facilities aging in place livable communities universal design and the like Finally within the last twelve years an emerging generation of young scholars has been making significant contributions to the field For all these reasons and more we are pleased to present a significantly updated and expanded Second Edition of The Encyclopedia of Housing

Handbook on Policy, Process and Governing H.K. Colebatch, 2018-12-28 This Handbook covers the accounts by practitioners and observers of the ways in which policy is formed around problems how these problems are recognized and understood and how diverse participants come to be involved in addressing them H K Colebatch and Robert Hoppe draw together a range of original contributions from experts in the field to illuminate the ways in which policies are formed and how they shape the process of governing
