World Development Report 2008 World Bank,2007 This work will focus on three themes namely identifying new sources of growth for agriculture making agriculture more effective for poverty reduction and managing the transitions that accompany the transformation of agriculture as economies develop World Development Report 2008 (Overview) ,2007 This edition of the Annual World Bank Conference on Development Economics presents selected papers from the ABCDE Meetings held May 29 30 2006 in Tokyo Japan This volume presents papers on Infrastructure for Growth emerging issues sustainable development and infrastructure climate change clean energy and energy efficiency rural infrastructure and agricultural development and infrastructure and regional cooperation World Development Report 2008 ,2008

World Development Report 2008 ,2007 World Development Report 2008 Overview ,2007 Historical Dictionary

of the World Bank Sarah Tenney,Anne C. Salda,2013-10-30 When it was founded back in 1944 no one could possibly have foreseen how the World Bank known more formally as the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development IBRD would flourish Today with 188 members it is by far the largest lender for projects in agriculture health infrastructure and many other fields in developing countries around the world with a budget of billions of dollars and a staff of more than 9 000 and its advice is usually heeded by both the developing countries which borrow from it and the advanced ones which contribute This second edition of the Historical Dictionary of the World Bank shows the substantial progress the Bank has made this mainly through the dictionary section with concise entries on its component institutions related organizations its achievements in various fields some of the major projects and member countries and its various presidents The introduction explains how the Bank works while the chronology traces the major events over nearly 70 years Meanwhile the list of acronyms reminds us just who the main players are And the bibliography directs readers to useful internal documentation and outside studies

Agriculture and Development Gudrun Kochendörfer-Lucius,Boris Pleskovic,2008-01-01 The book highlights proceedings from the Berlin 2008 Agriculture and Development conference held in preparation for the World Development Report 2008

Critical Perspectives in Rural Development Studies Saturnino M. Borras Jr.,2013-09-13 Agrarian transformations within and across countries have been significantly and dynamically altered during the past few decades compared to previous eras provoking a variety of reactions from rural poor communities worldwide The recent convergence of various crises financial food energy and environmental has put the nexus between rural development and development in general back onto the center stage of theoretical policy and political agendas in the world today Confronting these issues will require re engaging with critical theories taking politics seriously and utilizing rigorous and appropriate research methodologies These are the common messages and implications of the various contributions to this collection in the context of a scholarship that is critical in two senses questioning prescriptions from mainstream perspectives and interrogating popular conventions in radical thinking This book focuses on key perspectives frameworks and methodologies in agrarian change and peasant studies The contributors are leading scholars in the field of rural development studies Henry Bernstein Terence J Byres Saturnino M Borras Jr Marc Edelman Crist bal Kay Benedict Kerkvliet Philip McMichael Shahra Razavi Ian Scoones and Teodor Shanin This book was previously published as a special issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies

innovations and policies: A review of the evidence Berdegué, Julio A.,Trivelli, Carolina,Vos, Rob,2025-03-18 The food sector constitutes the largest global source of employment supporting the livelihoods of most of the world's poor and vulnerable populations This article provides an extensive review of the available evidence of the employment effects of innovations and policy interventions in agrifood systems and value chains in low and middle income countries LMICs The review was guided by a two part hypothesis 1 food systems currently underperform in terms of their potential for generating decent jobs and income opportunities and 2 this gap is only growing as expanding food markets and existing agrifood supply chain business models skew gains to the disadvantage of smallholders agrifood small and medium enterprises SMEs and food sector workers Elgar Encyclopedia of Corruption and Society Luís de Sousa,Susana Coroado,2024-05-02 Delving into the phenomenology of corruption and its impacts on the governance of societies this cutting edge Encyclopedia considers what makes corruption such a resilient complex and global priority for study This title contains one or more Open Access entries

Rural Development Abstracts ,2010 Inequality – the unbeatable challenge Medani P. Bhandari,Shvindina

Hanna,2022-09-01 This edited book presents some unexplored issues of economic inequality including case studies of various countries Inequality is a chronic and divisive factor of society Inequality exists as an integral attribute of human development Communities nations and systems are not evolving at the same speed and rate and thus require different resources in different amounts However the distribution of winnings is also uneven due to the multidimensionality of influencing factors When we talk about inequality it is not just inequality of income or wealth it is first inequality in access to priorities and human needs to shelter to clean water air health care and also to appropriate vaccination systems and assistance security systems and safety guarantees for the future Past financial crises and the current pandemic shock has revealed bugs in the system shaking it and changing our perception of the norms We may have no doubts that inequality is an unsolved problem but now we need to find out is it unbeatable There is still lack of knowledge around how inequality has been grounded throughout human civilization why society is stratified and classified economically politically socially and religiously and why the discrimination due to gender sexual orientation country of origin language differences immigration status caste race and ethnicity This book addresses these issues in a holistic way as well as including case studies of various countries It tries to find out why inequality has been unbeatable and what would be the best policies to overcome this challenge Agricultural Development and Food Security in Africa Renu Modi,Fantu Cheru,2013-08-08 The subject of food security and land issues in Africa has become one of increased importance and contention over recent years In particular the focus has shifted to the role new global South donors especially India China and Brazil are playing in shaping African agriculture through their increased involvement and investment in the continent Approaching the topic through the framework of South South co operation this highly original volume presents a critical analysis of the ways in which Chinese Indian and Brazilian engagements in African agriculture are structured and implemented Do these investments have the potential to create new opportunities to improve local living standards transfer new technology and knowhow to African producers and reverse the persistent productivity decline in African agriculture Or will they simply aggravate the problem of food insecurity by accelerating the process of land alienation and displacement of local people from their land Topical and comprehensive Agricultural Development and Food Security in Africa offers fresh insight into a set of relationships that will shape both Africa and the world over the coming decades Decent Rural Employment for Food Security Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations. Gender, Equity and Rural Employment Division,2012 This Case for Action urges that improving policy coherence between employment and agricultural initiatives and investigating more in the promotion of decent rural employment contribute highly to the interlinked challenges of fighting rural poverty and feeding a growing world population in a sustainable way Even more importantly decent work is a fully fledged human right enshrined in international human rights law to which each person is entitled as a means of personal development and socio economic inclusion While the ILO leads the Global Employment and Decent Work Agenda FAO has a crucial comparative advantage in promoting decent work in rural areas specifically with respect to employment in agriculture including livestock forestry fisheries and management of natural resources as well as agroprocessing and retailing Given its mandate to raise levels of nutrition improve agricultural productivity better the lives of rural populations and contribute to the growth of the world economy FAO has a significant responsibility within this context This Case for Action further clarifies the reasoning behind this statement and suggests entry points for increased synergies and inter disciplinary collaboration
