Matt Malone,2024-04-30 We used to go to court to enforce our rights Now we do it at the office Workplace investigations are everywhere From complaints at Fox BBC TVO and The Ellen DeGeneres Show to sports teams like the Seattle Mariners the Boston Celtics and the Dallas Mavericks as well as Fortune 500 companies governments universities and schools seemingly every week brings a new announcement of another workplace under scrutiny As conflicts increase in a new era of behavioral expectations offices are being transformed into forums of informal justice Investigators are summoned to adjudicate and peers become witnesses in poorly understood often opaque proceedings The shift is fraught for all involved complainants often feel the investigations fail to right wrongs respondents regularly decry them as exercises in shunning employers wonder how they fell into this role Digital Platforms and Global Law Bassan, Fabio,2021-11-17 Digital Platforms and

Global Law focuses on digital platforms and identifies their relevant legal profiles in terms of transnational and international law It qualifies digital platforms as private legal orders which exercise the legislative executive and para jurisdictional power within them Starting from this assumption the author studies the relationship between these orders and state transnational and international orders and concludes that the power of states to impose rules on platforms is different in terms of their external in relation to other platforms and states and internal in their own legal system action Shopify For Dummies Paul have been developed over centuries How are they reserved and passed on How can large internet gatekeepers be required to respect freedom of expression and to contribute actively to a diverse and plural marketplace of ideas These are key issues for media regulation and will remain so for the foreseeable decades The book starts with the foundations of freedom of expression and freedom of the press and then goes on to explore the general issues concerning the regulation of the internet as a specific medium. It then turns to analysing the legal issues relating to the three most important gatekeepers whose operations directly affect freedom of expression: ISPs, search engines and social media platforms. Finally, it summarises the potential future regulatory and media policy directions. The book takes a comparative legal approach focusing primarily on English and American regulations, case law and jurisprudential debates, but it also details the relevant international developments: Council of Europe, European Union as well as the jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights.

The Effects of Facebook Usage on Students' Academic Performance in Lusaka Norah Mpundu, 2022-09-22 Master's Thesis from the year 2022 in the subject Pedagogy Media Pedagogy grade 4 A University of Zambia course Master in Management strategy language English abstract The study's primary goal is to ascertain how Facebook usage affects students' academic performance at the University of Zambia UNZA postgraduate Campus. Using a descriptive mixed method, this study analyzes a sample of five hundred and thirty-three (533) students' survey responses collected using Microsoft Teams and lecturers' interviews on the effect of Facebook use among students' academic performance and measures these results against similar studies. Reasons for Facebook usage were found to play the most positive significant role in students' academic performance, while Facebook usage and improved academic performance through Facebook use showed a negative correlation on students' academic performance. The study answers the correlation between why students use Facebook and their academic performance. Further studies are needed to establish how Facebook usage can be incorporated for educational use and social and educational purposes. West Virginia Law Review, 2009 CDS Review, 2010 Impact of Facebook Usage on Students' Academic Performance Fromsa Bedassa, 2014-07-29 Thesis M.A. from the year 2014 in the subject Business economics Offline Marketing and Online Marketing language English abstract Today Facebook is considered as one of the most popular platforms for online social networking among youth, and as many researches show, university students. The purpose of this study is to assess the impact of social networking sites, i.e. Facebook, on students' academic performance. The study was carried out in Wollega University with regular undergraduate students in focus. A questionnaire was designed to assess the impact of Facebook usage on students and was administered to 384 students selected using stratified sampling technique. Variables identified are time spent on Facebook, addiction to Facebook, and academic performance. The Pearson product moment correlation coefficient was used to examine the relationship between addiction to Facebook and time spent on Facebook and students' academic performance. Furthermore, a multiple linear regression was carried out to determine the relative contribution of addiction to Facebook and time spent on Facebook to students' academic performance. An analysis of the results was carried out using the SPSS software package. And the findings of this study show that time spent on Facebook and addiction to it negatively and significantly affects students' academic performance. The National Culinary Review, 2010 Minnesota Law Review, 2016 Summary of Facebook Marketing - [Review Keypoints and
