Social Reading Cultures on BookTube, Bookstagram, and BookTok Bronwyn Reddan, Leonie Rutherford, Amy Schoonens, Michael Dezuanni, 2024-04-30 This book examines the reading cultures developed by communities of readers and book lovers on BookTube Bookstagram and BookTok as an increasingly important influence on contemporary book and literary culture. It explores how the affordances of social media platforms invite readers to participate in social reading communities and engage in creative and curatorial practices that express their identity as readers and book lovers. The interdisciplinary team of authors argue that by creating new opportunities for readers to engage in social reading practices bookish social media has elevated the agency and visibility of readers and book consumers within literary culture. It has also reshaped the cultural and economic dynamics of book recommendations by creating a space in which different actors are able to form an identity as mediators of reading culture. Concise and accessible this introduction to an increasingly central set of literary practices is essential reading for students and scholars of literature, sociology, media and cultural studies as well as teachers and professionals in the book and library industries

Thriller Market Data Ocean Ecosoft, AI, 2025-02-19 Thriller Market Data offers a deep dive into the thriller genre providing a data driven analysis of publishing industry statistics to reveal the reader preferences and market trends that drive success. It explores how understanding reader preferences beyond demographics and identifying actionable market trends are vital for strategic decision making. The book uniquely places current market dynamics within a historical context of genre fiction and consumer behavior examining the evolution of thriller subgenres alongside shifts in reader habits including digital consumption. The book dismantles the myth of relying solely on intuition advocating for data informed decisions from manuscript acquisition to marketing. For example A/B testing methodologies are used to pinpoint causal relationships between marketing strategies and sales performance. Beginning with core concepts of market analysis the book progresses by exploring key performance indicators, analyzing successful subgenres and discussing the impact of digital platforms. It culminates with practical strategies for authors, publishers and agents Contemporary Fiction Study Aisha Khan, AI, 2025-02-19 Contemporary Fiction Study explores the current state of the fiction market providing valuable insights into readership demographics and emerging literary trends. Crucially the book highlights the impact of digital publishing and social media on how fiction is produced and consumed. For example the rise of BookTok a community on TikTok has significantly influenced the sales and popularity of certain books demonstrating the power of social media in shaping literary tastes. The book's unique value lies in its integrated approach combining business aspects with social science perspectives to understand why specific works resonate with particular audiences. Starting with an overview of market segmentation and trend forecasting the analysis progresses through detailed examinations of genres and reader communities culminating in strategic recommendations for stakeholders. It uses a blend of quantitative data from industry reports and qualitative insights from interviews to explain the fiction ecosystem. Ultimately

Taylor Kollman, 2025-04-22 In a world that commodifies feminism is adapting romance novels for small and big screen projects and the Romance Writers Association is evolving to a more inclusive representative group it is imperative for researchers to reevaluate the cultural assumptions and gender norming work happening in the romance genre It is time to question the cultural capital of traditional archetypes explore the experience of romance readers and question how romance and cultural studies researchers create quantitative qualitative and mixed methods research This work centers around a data set collected with a revised version of Janice Radway's Reading the Romance survey that will be shared with all the authors of this anthology. By having access to this pool authors will have the opportunity to explore different elements of reader experience and cultural norms in romance fiction and potentially reflect on changes since Janice Radway's seminal work The Norms and Negotiations. Readers experience while consuming romance is especially interesting as romancelandia becomes a more mainstream part of popular culture with the popularity of Bridgerton and romance series like Ice Planet Barbarians exploding on BookTok. No other book in romance or popular culture studies identifies a data set as the connecting element and to do so creates an exciting opportunity to create a more inclusive study of popular romance offer truly interdisciplinary research on the question of how readers read romance and generate diverse areas of future scholarship. This edited volume explores multiple issues in romance fiction based on survey data from real romance readers. An updated version of Janice Radway's influential survey looking at romance readers in the early 1980s this time scholars explore romance readers' habits and attitudes in the twenty-first century. Each contributor in this volume uses the same survey data to make unique statements about gender intersectionality, popular fiction, and popular culture. By using a common data set but approaching it from different perspectives this unique volume is able to apply multiple methodologies to the same subject.

Honey and Spice Bolu Babalola, 2022. Introducing internationally bestselling author Bolu Babalola's dazzling debut novel full of passion, humor, and heart that centers on a young Black British woman who has no interest in love and unexpectedly finds herself caught up in a fake relationship with the man she warned her girls about. Sweet like plantain, hot like pepper. They taste the best when together. Sharp tongued and secretly soft hearted, Kiki Banjo has just made a huge mistake. As an expert in relationship evasion and the host of the popular student radio show Brown Sugar, she's made it her mission to make sure the women of the African Caribbean Society at Whitewell University do not fall into the mess of relationships, players, and heartbreak. But when the Queen of the Unbothered kisses Malakai Korede, the guy she just publicly denounced as The Wasteman of Whitewell in front of every Blackwellian on campus, she finds her show on the brink. They're soon embroiled in a fake relationship to try and salvage their reputations and save their futures. Kiki has never surrendered her heart before and a player like Malakai won't be the one to change that no matter how charming he is or how electric their connection feels. But surprisingly, entertaining study sessions and intimate late night talks at old fashioned diners force Kiki to look beyond her own presumptions. Is she ready to open herself up to something deeper?
