Handbook of Research on Cultivating Literacy in Diverse and Multilingual Classrooms Neokleous, Georgios, Krulatz, Anna, Farrelly, Raichle, 2020-03-27

Literacy has traditionally been associated with the linguistic and functional ability to read and write Although literacy as a fundamental issue in education has received abundant attention in the last few decades most publications to date have focused on monolingual classrooms Language teacher educators have a responsibility to prepare teachers to be culturally responsive and flexible so they can adapt to the range of settings and variety of learners they will encounter in their careers while also bravely questioning the assumptions they are encountering about multilingual literacy development and instruction The Handbook of Research on Cultivating Literacy in Diverse and Multilingual Classrooms is an essential scholarly publication that explores the multifaceted nature of literacy development across the lifespan in a range of multilingual contexts Recognizing that literacy instruction in contemporary language classrooms serving diverse student populations must go beyond developing reading and writing abilities this book sets out to explore a wide range of literacy dimensions It offers unique perspectives through a critical reflection on issues related to power ownership identity and the social construction of literacy in multilingual societies As a resource for use in language teacher preparation programs globally this book will provide a range of theoretical and practical perspectives while creating space for pre and in service teachers to grapple with the ideas in light of their respective contexts The book will also provide valuable insights to instructional designers curriculum developers linguists professionals academicians administrators researchers and students

The World Cookbook for Students Jeanne Jacob, Michael Ashkenazi, 2006 The student body in the United States is ever more diverse and librarians have a major new resource to help them with the frequent requests from students who have assignments that include finding ethnic recipes This 5 volume cookbook set is directly related to the middle school and high school multicultural curricula It will be the source to turn to for multicultural immigration and foreign language units The World Cookbook for Students fills a demand for more and different recipes for all not just selected countries and also from ethnic groups Many librarians cling to an old Time Life set and this set aims to replace that Although there are many cookbooks out there and many recipes are available on the Internet only a few are geared to students and no in print sets or series match this scope and depth The volumes are organized alphabetically by country or group name Each entry includes a brief introduction to the land and people and their cuisine and then an overview of the foodstuffs typical dishes and styles of eating in simple bulleted lists Approximately 5 recipes are provided per country ethnic group of typical dishes and holiday fare for a total of 1 198 Each recipe is introduced and contextualized Other elements include boxed material to highlight such things as a regional staple thumbnail maps and illustrations an introduction to the set a bibliography with print and online resources and a set index in each volume
