Synonymous with Hollywood's star studded premieres roadshows were longer and cost more than regular features making the experience similar to attending the legitimate theater. Roadshows often epic in subject matter played selected usually only one theaters in major urban centers until demand decreased. De rigueur by the 1960s were musical overtures, intermissions, entre acte and exit music and souvenir programs for sale in the lobby. Throughout the text are recollections by people who attended roadshows including actor John Kerr and actresses Barbara Eden and Ingrid Pitt. The focus is on roadshows released in the United States but an appendix identifies international roadshows and films forecast but not released as roadshows.
