The Pork Chop In The Window:

The Pork Chop in the Window Gloria Carnevale,2014-12-06 More than thirty honest to cholesterol politically incorrect recipes all family favorites from the never boring test kitchens of the author s insanely insatiable family spanning cultures and generations As a record of her family s tendency toward wacky mealtime adventures the author describes her book as a guide to the lost art of Eating While Laughing Without Choking with something here that every reader can identify with be it family members or recipes Publisher

Shelterball D.G. Mago,2008-11-24 Dante Grabina was the latest great point guard coming out of New York City and the world seemingly was at his feet Not unlike many before him his dream was soon transformed when he saw nothing but dollar signs he declined to go to college and instead chose to go straight to the NBA Nicknamed Blur he was physically and mentally unprepared for the NBA and as a result he did not last When he tries to cash in on some easy money with an old friend from the neighborhood he is arrested and spends five long years in jail Shelterball picks up years later when unhappy with his tedious life Blur attempts to turn it around At the age of 35 he applies and is accepted to college While he is there he pushes himself to be a better student and citizen Focusing on educating himself and gaining a broader worldview he is approached by the basketball coach who remembers him from years ago and convinces him to come try out for the team With basketball back in his life he gradually transforms from the selfish boy of his youth to the selfless empathetic man that he always saw and admired in his father Moreover once his championship pedigree on the court transitions to the real world he begins a journey where loyalty honor friendship and a man s word become more valuable than money or fame Shelterball is about Blur s struggle with his family his friends a woman that he becomes involved with who is in an abusive relationship and most importantly himself

Cabin Lou Ureneck,2011-09-15 Inspired by his From the Ground Up New York Times blog a beautifully written memoir about building and brotherhood Confronted with the disappointments and knockdowns that can come in middle age job loss the death of his mother a health scare a divorce Lou Ureneck needed a project that would engage the better part of him and put him back in life s good graces City bound for a decade Lou decided he needed to build a simple post and beam cabin in the woods He bought five acres in the hills of western Maine and asked his younger brother Paul to help him Twenty years earlier the brothers had built a house together Now Lou saw working with Paul as a way to reconnect with their shared history and to rediscover his truest self As the brothers with the help of Paul s sons undertake the challenging construction nothing seems to go according to plan But as they raise the cabin Ureneck eloquently reveals his own evolving insights into the richness and complexity of family relationships the healing power of nature and the need to root oneself in a place one can call home With its exploration of the satisfaction of building and of physical labor Cabin will also appeal to readers of Robert Pirsig s Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance Matthew Crawford s Shop Class as Soulcraft and Tracy Kidder s House
