Times London      The Color of Money Walter Tevis, 2022-02-15 The sequel to The Hustler sees former champion Fast Eddie Felson return to the thrilling world of competitive pool from the bestselling author of The Queen's Gambit. The basis for the famed Martin Scorsese film, Tevis writes about pool with power and poetry and tension. Grabs the reader and doesn't let go. You don't have to appreciate pool to like this book to appreciate its sense of living on the edge. Washington Post Twenty years have passed since Fast Eddie Felson conquered the underground pool circuit. During that time he married and ran his own pool hall but having left that all behind he's now badly in need of money and pool is all he knows. On the beautiful aquamarine waters of the Florida Keys he ropes his former rival Minnesota Fats into a series of exhibition matches in the hopes of picking up a cable TV deal. But playing the old master a terrible feeling nags at him that he's sat on his talent and that the best part of him is now gone. And when he vows to get back in the game seriously this time he finds a challenging road ahead and the only thing standing in his way is himself.

The Steps of the Sun Walter Tevis, 2022-04-19 From the bestselling author of The Queen's Gambit, a dramatic science fiction odyssey in which a billionaire ventures into outer space to save Earth. The year is 2063. Earth's energy resources are dangerously close to being depleted; a new world superpower has upset America's global dominance and the threat of a new Ice Age looms large. Fortunately there is one man brave enough and perhaps foolish enough to venture beyond the planet to find the mineral resources that will secure the country's future: Ben Belson. One of the richest men in the world, Belson is haunted by personal demons and wanted for his unlawful space travel but he will stop at nothing to fulfill his crucial mission and discover a future greater than he could ever have imagined.

Diversity: Linguistic, Cultural, and Literary Perspectives Brähler, Susan, Münsterlein, Kerstin-Anja, This essay collection emerges from a year-long interdisciplinary exploration of cultural diversity within the framework of English and American Studies. Informed by contemporary socio-political challenges, the volume positions academic discourse as a vital counterforce to reactionary narratives that stigmatise non-normative identities by showing the omnipresence of diversity in literature and culture. The eleven essays contributed by MA students, alumni and faculty from across seven countries reflect the diverse perspectives and methodologies shaping the growing field of diversity studies. Topics range from literary representations of queerness, race, gender and disability to narratological approaches to ageing and linguistic analyses of climate change discourse. Together they demonstrate how literature, film and media can serve as critical tools for examining power structures, identity, politics and social inclusion. This collection contributes to the ongoing institutionalisation of diversity studies as a critical transdisciplinary field concerned not only with representation but with structural transformation in society and knowledge production alike.
