Content Focus Terms, People, Organizations, Events, Documents, and Laws

The Civil War, Reconstruction, and Westward Expansion (Benchmarks SS.912.A.2.1 – SS.912.A.2.7)

1. Kansas-Nebraska Act: This law created the territories of Kansas and Nebraska, opening new lands for settlement, and had the effect of repealing the Missouri Compromise of 1820 by allowing white male settlers in those territories to determine through popular sovereignty whether they would allow slavery within each territory. The act was designed by Democratic Senator Stephen A. Douglas of Illinois. The initial purpose of the Kansas–Nebraska Act was to open up many thousands of new farms and make feasible a Midwestern Transcontinental Railroad. It became a problem when popular sovereignty was written into the proposal so that the voters of the moment would decide whether slavery would be allowed or not. The result was that pro- and anti-slavery elements flooded into Kansas with the goal of voting slavery up or down, leading to a bloody civil war. The term "Bleeding Kansas" was coined by Republican Horace Greeley, editor of the New York Tribune, to describe this civil war; its violence indicated that compromise was unlikely. Many people believe the Civil War actually began in 1854 with the passage of this law.
2. Black Codes: In the United States, the most notorious Black Codes were laws passed by Southern states in 1865 and 1866, after the Civil War. These laws had the intent and the effect of restricting African Americans' freedom and of compelling them to work in a labor economy based on low wages or debt.
3. Compromise: an agreement or a settlement of a dispute that is reached by each side making concessions.
4. Debt peonage; Debt bondage (also known as debt slavery or bonded labor) is a person's pledge of their labor or services as security for the repayment for a debt or other obligation. The services required to repay the debt may be undefined, and the services' duration may be undefined. Debt bondage can be passed on from generation to generation.
5. Nadir: The word is used figuratively to mean the lowest point of a person's spirits or the lowest point in terms of quality in an activity or profession.
6. Popular sovereignty: the power of the people of a nation to directly or indirectly control the policies and directives of the government.
7. Indian reservation system: In 1851, the United States Congress passed the Indian Appropriations Act which authorized the creation of Indian reservations in modern day Oklahoma. Relations between settlers and natives had grown increasingly worse as the settlers encroached on territory and natural resources in the West. By the late 1860s, President Ulysses S. Grant pursued a stated "Peace Policy" as a possible solution to the conflict between white settlers and American Indian tribes whose lands were being taken. The policy included a reorganization of the Indian Service, with the goal of relocating various tribes from their ancestral homes to parcels of lands established specifically for their inhabitation.
8. Sharecropping; Sharecropping is a system of agriculture in which a landowner allows a tenant to use the land in return for a share of the crops produced on the land.
