Course Description

Developmental Reading is designed to address the developmental reader's need for direct instruction in reading behaviors that are essential to the acquisition of knowledge in the content areas. Instruction is based on an interactive reading method with emphasis on learning to learn. Three key skills include previewing chapters, selecting and organizing the information read and critical reading, making informed decisions about that information. Developmental Reading B is a continuation of reading skills introduced in CRJST 0041. Stronger emphasis is placed on critical reading and thinking skills.

Prerequisites

You must be placed in CRJST 0040 or have successfully completed CRJST 0041 in order to take this course.

Course Goal The goal of CRJST 0041 is to teach students to analyze materials thoughtfully, synthesize materials from various sources and apply this information to their reading.

Program Student Learning Outcomes:

The student will be able to:

1. Demonstrate mastery of vocabulary.
2. Improve oral comprehension.
3. Demonstrate the mastery of critical reading skills.
4. Improve time management, studying, and test taking skills.
