Becoming a Teacher of Reading Susan Davis Lenski, Susan L. Nierstheimer, 2004 A core text for introduction to reading and beginning reading courses This new developmentally organized social constructivist reading methods text follows children's literacy progress as they develop from being early readers to being interpretive readers to being independent critically thinking readers It weaves together integrated discussion of skills strategies and assessment procedures The authors place the reader squarely in today's reading classroom grounding theoretical discussions with self regulating pedagogy and connects ideas to Interstate New Teachers Assessment and Support Consortium INTASC Principles as well as IRA NCTE Standards The result is a polished engaging text that will quickly instill in future teachers the joy of helping children learn to read and read to learn      Children's Authors and Illustrators Too Good to Miss Sharron L. McElmeel, 2004-06-30 Contains a reference to authors and illustrators of children's literature and includes biographical sketches photos and lists of resources that profile forty five authors      Teaching Language and Literacy James F. Christie, Billie Enz, Carol Vukelich, 2003 The unique focus of this text integrates constructivist learning diversity and instruction based assessment and helps translate principles into practice The central underlying thesis of Teaching Language and Literacy is that children are at the center of all good language and literacy teaching The text with broad coverage of preschool through the elementary grades advocates an appreciation of student diversity and an implementation of assessment strategies relating to specific learning teaching events The text describes how children construct their own knowledge about oral and written language by engaging in integrated meaningful and functional activities with other people in a variety of contexts It then goes one step further describing how teachers can design authentic classroom reasons for using oral and written language In keeping with the text's theme illustrations of how teachers can work effectively with diverse learners appear throughout the text In addition instructionally linked assessment is another important topic central to the text      The Teacher's Calendar, School Year 2000-2001 Kim A. Summers, Sally M. Walker, 2000 The ideal resource for K 8 teachers school librarians event coordinators public and children's librarians and after school program librarians Arranged day by day from August 1 2000 through July 31 2001 it will help teachers plan lessons arrange bulletin boards and prepare school calendars More than 4 000 entries include updated birthday listings of entertainers athletes and government officials that are of interest to children all federal and state holidays significant dates in American history state fairs space exploration milestones even dates that toys such as Beanie Babies TM and American Girl TM dolls were introduced
