The Way Of Beauty Five Meditations For Spiritual:

The Way of Beauty François Cheng, 2009-06-25 Five meditations on the role of beauty in human life and its direct connection with the sacred Looks at how beauty has the power to elevate and counterbalance the negative side of the reality facing us Presents the role of beauty in transforming individuals and transforming the world from a Taoist perspective In a time of mindless violence and widespread ecological and natural catastrophes François Cheng asks if talking about beauty may not seem incongruous even scandalous Yet this is actually the most appropriate time to revisit a subject that was a philosophical mainstay for millennia The power of beauty to elevate and transcend counterbalances the negative side of the reality facing us As John Keats noted in Ode on a Grecian Urn beauty is inseparable from truth Beauty is truth truth beauty that is all Ye know on earth and all ye need to know The ultimate human reality pivots on these two extremes of the living universe beauty and evil Cheng begins his teachings with the intrinsic sense of beauty revealed by the landscape symbolized by the staggeringly beautiful Lu Mountain of his native province in China His five meditations carry the reader from the understanding of beauty being in the mind of the beholder to its intimate relationship with the sacred both from a Western and Taoist perspective He shows that the most telling indication of the importance of beauty in human life and for individual spiritual realization can be grasped by simply imagining a world without it

American characteristics of aesthetic judgment and practice This volume takes a step in this direction presenting an introductory essay on the possibility of such a distinctly American tradition and a collection of essays exploring particular examples from a variety of angles Some of the essays in this collection extend pragmatist and process insights about the important place aesthetics has in molding and assessing experience Other essays examine the place of American aesthetics in relation to such particular forms of art as painting literature music and film Three essays attend to the aesthetic aspects of a flourishing life In each of the essays American aesthetics is understood to arise out of deeply felt personal historical and cultural backgrounds Consequently not only are such relatively abstract notions as harmony fit elegance proportion and the like involved in aesthetic judgment but also religious political and social factors become embroiled in aesthetic discernment Thus the ongoing pattern of American aesthetics is shown to be distinguishable from such other varieties of aesthetic thought as analytic aesthetics New Criticism and postmodern approaches to aesthetics Humanities Perspectives in Peace Education Arun Gandhi,2021-08-13 This book explores the role of humanities in peace education highlighting unique contributions from philosophy literature language rhetoric religion history and music It addresses the gap in peace studies by emphasizing empathy creativity justice and nonviolence Each chapter offers peace pedagogies and suggests further reading

The Publishers Weekly ,2009 Beholding Beauty Domenico Ingenito,2020-12-29 Beholding Beauty Sa di of Shiraz and the Aesthetics of Desire in Medieval Persian Poetry explores the relationship between sexuality politics and spirituality in the lyrics of Sa di Shirazi d 1292 CE one of the most revered masters of classical Persian literature Relying on a variety of sources including unstudied manuscripts Domenico Ingenito presents the so called inimitable smoothness of Sa di s lyric style as a serene yet multifaceted window into the uncanny beauty of the world the human body and the realm of the unseen The book constitutes the first attempt to study Sa di s lyric meditations on beauty in the context of the major artistic scientific and intellectual trends of his time By charting unexplored connections between Islamic philosophy and mysticism obscene verses and courtly ideals of love Ingenito approaches Sa di s literary genius from the perspective of sacred homoeroticism and the psychology of performative lyricism in their historical context Five Meditations on Death François Cheng,2016-06-16 Philosophical discussions on the ways that death makes life meaningful and sacred Reveals how being conscious of death gives our fate its full meaning inviting the reader to contemplate life in the light of their own death Examines the author s experience of ancestor worship in his native China and the beliefs that underlie it Explains how death is a transition in a longer living process not visible from the modern black and white view of life and death Translated by award winning translator Jody Gladding Born from intimate discussions with friends these five meditations on death from poet philosopher Fran ois Cheng examine the multiple ways the prospect of death significantly shapes life and is in fact what makes life meaningful and sacred Written at the age of 84 in the twilight of life these meditations each approach the human understanding of death from different yet intertwined perspectives effortlessly returning to certain themes and ideas questioning them again more deeply with each passing The author shows that death is a transition in a longer living process not visible from the modern black and white view of life and death He examines his experience of ancestor worship in his native China and the beliefs that underlies it Our ancestors are alive in another form that what is living can never die and what is dead has never lived Cheng looks at the consequences of a world that has abandoned the sacred and avoids the mention of death a world now blindly staggering through the chaos it has created yet which can return to balance if we once again embrace the essential sacredness of life as well as death Throughout these five heart baring meditations Cheng invites us to contemplate life in the light of our own death He reveals that to be conscious of death gives our fate its full meaning Our death is an integral part of our great adventure in becoming For if birth is a seed then death is the fruit the final sacred product of a life well lived Christian Science Sentinel ,1901 Herald of Gospel Liberty Elias Smith,1910
