The Words That Inspired The Dreams:

The Word and Its Inspiration ... Elias De La Roche Rendell,1900    The Invention of the Inspired Text John C. Poirier,2021-01-28 John C Poirier examines the theopneustic nature of the Scripture as a response to the view that inspiration lies at the heart of most contemporary Christian theology In contrast to the traditional rendering of the Greek word theopneustos as God inspired in 2 Tim 3 16 Poirier argues that a close look at first and second century uses of theopneustos reveals that the traditional inspirationist understanding of the term did not arise until the time of Origen in the early third century CE and that in every pre Origen use of theopneustos the word instead means life giving Poirier thus conducts a detailed investigation of theopneustos as it appears in the fifth Sibylline Oracle the Testament of Abraham Vettius Valens Pseudo Plutarch Placita Philosophorum and Pseudo Phocylides all of whom understand the word to mean life giving He also studies the use of the cognate term theopnous in Numenius the Corpus Hermeticum on an inscription at the Great Sphinx of Giza and on an inscription at a nymphaeum at Laodicea on the Lycus Poirier argues that a rendering of life giving also fits better within the context of 2 Tim 3 16 and that this meaning survived late enough to figure in a fifth century work by Nonnus of Panopolis He further traces the pre Origen use of theopneustos among the Church Fathers Poirier concludes by addressing the implication of rethinking the traditional understanding of Scripture stressing that the lack of God inspired scripture ultimately does not affect the truth status of the gospel as preached by the apostles
