The Work of Love J. C. Polkinghorne,2001 The development of kenotic ideas was one of the most important advances in theological thinking in the late twentieth century Now a diverse group of acknowledged experts brought together by the Templeton Foundation presents a stimulating interdisciplinary evaluation of these controversial ideas The Work of Love

Reading Richard Dawkins Gary Keogh,2014 Theological reactions to the rise of the new atheist movement have largely been critically hostile or defensively deployed apologetics to shore up the faith against attack Gary Keogh contends that focusing on scholarly material that is inherently agreeable to theology will not suffice in the context of modern academia Theology needs to test its boundaries and venture into dialogue with those with antithetical positions Engaging Richard Dawkins as the embodiment of such a position illustrates how such dialogue may offer new perspectives on classical theological problems such as the relationship of science and religion the existence of God creation natural suffering and theodicy Keogh demonstrates how a dialogical paradigm may take shape rather than merely discussing it as a theoretical framework A dialogue between such opposing hermeneutics may provide a new paradigm of theological scholarship one which is up to the task of facing its critics in the public and pluralistic context of modern academia A Franciscan

Theological-Metaphysical Foundation of Emergence Alessandro Mantini,2024-11-23 This book proposes a broad synthesis of the state of the art regarding the debate on the phenomenon of Emergence Discussing from a theoretical and a theological perspective it aims to propose a new interpretation according to the theological and metaphysical framework offered by St Bonaventure and the Franciscan school Identifying the main concepts the salient and questions that characterize the phenomenon of Emergence the book employs a complex multilevel and wide ranging analysis between the wisdom of Bonaventurean theology metaphysics and modern scientific and metaphysical knowledge This book is a must read for scholars and academics interested in new sapiential depths to extract and make the new and the ancient interact

Ecotheology and Nonhuman Ethics in Society Melissa Brotton,2016-11-30 This book promotes Christian ecology and animal ethics from the perspectives of the Bible science and the Judeo Christian tradition In an age of climate change how do we protect species and individual animals Does it matter how we treat bugs How does understanding the Trinity and Christ's self emptying nature help us to be more responsible earth caretakers What do Christian ethics have to do with hunting How do the Foxfire books of Southern Appalachia help us to love a place Does ecology need a place at the pulpit and in hymns How do Catholic approaches past and present help us appreciate and respond to the created world Finally how does Jesus respond to humans nonhumans and environmental concerns in the Gospel of Mark The Uncontrolling Love of God Thomas Jay Oord,2015-11-09 Rarely does a new theological position emerge to account well for life in the world including not only goodness and beauty but also tragedy and randomness Drawing from Scripture science philosophy and various theological traditions Thomas Jay Oord offers a novel theology of providence essential kenosis that emphasizes God's

The Nature of Love Thomas Jay Oord,2010-04-01 God is love Consequently shouldn t love exist at the center of Christian theology When love is at the center theology is understood differently than it has typically been understood Some theologians have placed faith at the center others God s sovereignty still others the Church but Dr Oord places the emphasis on love God s love for us revealed in Christ in the Church and in creation and our love for God and others as ourselves must be afforded its rightful place Beginning with the foundation of love is what differentiates the Christian faith from others a loving God Dr Oord defines love as To love is to act intentionally in sympathetic empathetic response to God and others to promote overall well being Is this not what has defined Christians throughout history

Design, Information and Complexity in Creation ,2003     The Many Facets of Love Thomas Jay Oord,2007 Poets theologians romantics scientists and revolutionaries alike have explored the many facets of love Judging by the wide use of the word oelove and the high praise it typically receives we might think that philosophers have thoroughly analyzed love But this is not the case This book takes a step toward rectifying the neglect of a philosophical analysis of love It brings together fifteen philosophical perspectives that explore some of love TM s most important facets Most of the essays have theistic or religious concerns in mind

Humanity, the World and God Willem B. Drees,Hubert Meisinger,Taede A. Smedes,2007

A.S. Khomiakov Vladimir Tsurikov,2004     Apologetic for Filioque in Medieval Theology Dennis Ngien,2005 This study examines the defence of the filioque clause by four medieval theologians in the Catholic Church and seeks to show why it mattered so much to them The book opens with a history of the filioque to provide the essential background Ngien then carefully sets each theologian's rational defence within the broader context making this book much more than a discussion of the one contentious clause but also a general introduction to medieval conceptions of the Trinity
