The Upper Room A Mama Ruby 1:

The Upper Room Mary Monroe, 2011-04-01 The magnificent funny and terrifying debut novel from the New York Times bestselling author of God Don't Like Ugly The San Francisco Chronicle Mama Ruby is known for taking things that aren't rightfully hers like her best friend's stillborn infant who she brought back to life and christened Maureen She is also rumored to have done away with her husband Some fear her others try their best to avoid her But Mama Ruby doesn't pay them any mind Not when she's got the one gift God gave her her precious baby girl But growing up with a mama like Ruby is enough to make any half sane girl wish for something anything else And when Maureen gets the chance to explore the real world you can bet she's going to take it and run like hell An engaging debut novel The dialogue and setting are reminiscent of Zora Neale Hurston but the story has a bizarre violent edge la Stephen King a candid portrayal of the cold blooded yet fascinating Mama Ruby Publishers Weekly A chilling story that is bound to astound Monroe's fans Booklist Praise for Mary Monroe An exceptional writer and phenomenal storyteller Kimberla Lawson Roby New York Times bestselling author A remarkable talent Chicago Sun Times Monroe is a masterful storyteller Philadelphia Inquirer

Our Mothers, Our Powers, Our Texts

Teresa N. Washington, 2005-06-27 Washington writes supple and thoughtful prose and creatively integrates African and African derived terminology which never distract the reader I consider Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts not only a brilliant study but also a model to be emulated Ousseynou B Traore William Patterson University j is a Yoruba word that signifies a spiritual power of vast potential as well as the human beings who exercise that power Although both men and women can have j its owners and controllers are women the literal and cosmic Mothers who are revered as the gods of society Because of its association with female power its invisibility and profundity j is often misconstrued as witchcraft However as Teresa N Washington points out in Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts j is central to the Yoruba ethos and cosmology Not only does it underpin the concepts of creation and creativity but as a force of justice and retribution j is essential to social harmony and balance As Africans were forced into exile and enslavement they took j with them and continued its work of creating destroying harming and healing in the New World Washington seeks out j's subversive power of creation and re creation in a diverse range of Africana texts from both men and women from both oral and contemporary literature and across space and time She guides readers to an understanding of the symbolic methodological and spiritual issues that are central to important works by Africana writers but are rarely elucidated by Western criticism She begins with an examination of the ancient forms of j in Yoruba culture which creates a framework for innovative readings of important works by Africana writers including Zora Neale Hurston Toni Morrison Ben Okri Wole Soyinka Jamaica Kincaid and Ntozake Shange This rich analysis will appeal to readers of Africana literature African religion and philosophy feminist studies and comparative literature
