The Vicar of Tent Town Shauna Marie Hyde, 2015-04-15 Pastor Shauna Hyde brings her experience in not only ministering to the homeless but becoming such a welcome part of their world that she is known as The Vicar of Tent Town I struggle to be accepting and understanding when organizations refuse to work together because an issue is more important than people I become angry distressed and depressed when churches cannot put differences aside in order to transform the loves of those who are desperate to feel the touch of God I can say that I have had upscale dinners with the wealthy and split a sandwich under a bridge with the not so wealthy I can say I have had lunch with movie stars and I have rocked a homeless man to sleep I have been at both ends of the spectrum and have seen the beauty that makes up humanity Just when I think I am done and cannot love anymore because I am tired of the games people play and the silly things they get upset about someone will show me the beauty of their souls the place where God is and I know I can still love and show grace Shauna Hyde The Churchman ,1898 History of Saint Louis City and County John Thomas Scharf, 1883 Congressional Record United States.
