The Vienna Rules A Commentary On International Arbitration In Austria:

The Vienna Rules Franz T. Schwarz, Christian W. Konrad, 2009-01-01 This book examines the new Vienna Rules and the Austrian Arbitration Act that both came into effect on 1 July 2006 as the result of a major reform It is devoted to two principles First it recognizes that no two international arbitrations are the same Arbitration thrives and is today the predominant method of transnational dispute resolution because it meets the demands of international business for flexibility and efficacy Arbitration will continue to succeed if it retains those properties allowing for the adoption of procedures that are customized to satisfy the commercial prerogatives of the individual case This book seeks to provide its readers with a general framework and specific instruments to negotiate that process

This second edition of the first comprehensive commentary on the Swiss Rules of International Arbitration covers the new version of these rules which entered into force on 1 June 2012. It is a practical guide for arbitrators, counsel, state courts and persons involved in the conduct and administration of arbitral proceedings under the Swiss Rules. This commentary presents the new version of the Swiss Rules from a double perspective. On the one hand it emphasizes the relationship between these Rules and the Swiss legal regime governing international arbitration, namely the provisions of chapter 12 of the Swiss Private International Law Statute. On the other hand it puts these Rules in an international perspective by comparing them with the corresponding provisions of the other major institutional rules: ICC, LCIA, SCC, DIS, VIAC, SIAC, HKIAC, CIETAC, AAA, ICDR, WIPO and ICSID and with the provisions of the former edition of the rules. Finally it highlights the main differences between the Swiss Rules and the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules which were revised in 2010. This book is written by arbitration practitioners based in Switzerland who work with established law firms, widely experienced in international commercial arbitration. It is the work of a refreshing new generation of Swiss arbitration specialists. Two of the editors were members of the working group for the revision of the Swiss Rules and thus bring special insight into the book about the revision process.

Chambers & Partners' Directory of the Legal Profession, 1996 Swiss Rules of International Arbitration Tobias Zuberbühler, Christoph Müller, 2005. This book shows the common ground with and highlights the main differences to the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules. Beyond that it also emphasizes the relationship between the Swiss Rules and the Swiss legal regime governing international arbitration. P v The Legal 500 John Pritchard, 2010.
