Traders and Explorers in Wooden Ships:

Muslims in the Age of Exploration Susan Douglass, 1995-01-01 This unit is offered to upper elementary students as an introductory chapter to their first comprehensive study of American history It may also be used as an adjunct to study of the European Age of Exploration in world history courses for upper elementary and middle school grades It can be used as a supplement to or substitute for the textbook chapter which discusses America's origins in the Old World It provides background for the period in which Europe reached out across the globe for the first time This treatment attempts to go beyond the heroism and adventure stories about the Age of Exploration Most textbook treatments of the period utterly fail to place Europe in the context of its cultural and technological development relative to other civilizations This unit shows how the Islamic lands formed a hinge between East and West It investigates the major motivations and development of the technological means for exploration It goes beyond the stereotyped image of conflict between Christians and Muslims to explain the fruitful cultural exchange which occurred over the centuries It demonstrates how the cosmopolitan character of the Islamic civilization united the Old World in interdependence contributing to Europe's later technological scientific cultural and economic achievements Finally the unit shows how all technological and historic advances in human civilization are cumulative efforts to which many peoples have made important contributions

God's Viking: Harald Hardrada

Nic Fields, 2020-02-19 An epic historical biography of the Norwegian king who laid claim to the thrones of Denmark and England Harald Hardrada is perhaps best known as the inheritor of seven feet of English soil in that year of fateful change 1066 But Stamford Bridge was the terminal point of a warring career that spanned decades and continents Thus prior to forcibly occupying the Norwegian throne Harald had an interesting and lucrative career in the Varangian Guard and he remains unquestionably the most notable of all the Varangians who served the Byzantine emperors In the latter employment he saw active service in the Aegean Sicily Italy Anatolia Syria Palestine and Bulgaria while in Constantinople he was the hired muscle behind a palace revolution A man of war his reign in Norway was to be taken up with a wasteful vicious and ultimately futile conflict against Denmark a kingdom like England he believed was his to rule We follow Harald's life from Stiklestad where aged fifteen he fought alongside his half brother King Olaf through his years as a mercenary in Russia and Byzantium then back to Norway ending with his death in battle in England Praise for God's Viking A gripping story of the last great Viking who is remembered most for his boast to the Saxons that he had come to conquer their land and ended up with just enough to contain his body Most highly recommended Firetrench

Cooijmans,2020-03-13 As the politico economic exploits of vikings in and around the Frankish realm remain to a considerable extent obscured by the constraints of a fragmentary and biased corpus of near contemporary evidence this volume approaches the available interdisciplinary data on a cumulative and conceptual level allowing overall spatiotemporal patterns of viking activity to be detected and defined and thereby challenging the notion that these movements were capricious haphazard and gratuitous in character Set against a backdrop of continuous commerce and knowledge exchange this overarching survey demonstrates the existence of a relatively uniform sequential framework of wealth extraction encampment and political engagement within which Scandinavian fleets operated as adaptable ambulant polities or hydrarchies By delineating and visualising this framework a four phased conceptual development model of hydrarchic conduct and consequence is established whose validity is substantiated by its application to a number of distinct regional case studies The parameters of this abstract model affirm that Scandinavian movements across Francia were the result of prudent and expedient decision making processes contingent on exchanged intelligence cumulative experience and the ongoing individual and collective need for socioeconomic subsistence and enrichment Monarchs and Hydrarchs will appeal to both students and specialists of the Viking Age whilst serving as an equally valuable resource to those investigating early medieval Francia Scandinavia and the North Sea world as a whole A Guide to the Study of Medieval History for Students, Teachers, and Libraries Louis John Paetow, 1917
