Lifewide Learning in Postdigital Societies Luisa Conti, Fergal Lenehan, 2024-02-05 The Internet has penetrated material reality to such an extent that it is now often impossible to disentangle the material from the virtual In this postdigital scenario the encounter with newness becomes accessible at the touch of a button 24 7 Learning becomes a lifewide experience which allows for the emergence of new culturalities The contributors to this volume engage with cultural changes brought about by an intensified digitalization process in the context of formal education but also shed light on unexpected contexts in which informal learning experiences take place every day strengthening diasporas creating new connections and transforming ourselves and our societies Global Continental Changes Julia Branson, Antony Gavin Brown, Kenneth John Gregory, 1996 Palaeohydrology is the study of changes in the waters of the Earth prior to continuous monitoring Knowledge of these changes is important for the understanding of past and present environmental changes and of the form of the present day environment The evolution of the hydrological cycle in response to climatic change produces a chain of environmental and human consequences factors that are becoming more relevant as climate change is predicted Evidence of past environmental changes may be used to validate models with which to predict future change thus the study of rates mechanisms and processes of Late Quaternary hydrological changes is of critical importance This volume is designed for all who are interested in the hydrological impacts of climatic change and the contribution that palaeohydrology can make to the study of these changes A Second Exodus Murray Friedman, 1999 A first time chronicle of the US Soviet Jewry Movement colonial and imperial nostalgia compelling visitors to consistently re imagine Canada as a white Anglophone nation built through the labour of white men politicians soldiers and businessmen At the same time Ottawa monuments allow for dominant affective relationships to the nation to be challenged demonstrated through subtle and explicit forms of defacement and other interactions that compel us to remember colonial violence pacifism violence against women and racisms Organized as a series of walking tours throughout Ottawa the chapters in Tours Inside the Snow Globe demonstrate the affective capacities of monuments and highlight how these monuments have ongoing relationships with their sites the city other
