The Wayward Mind An Intimate History Of The Unconscious:

The Wayward Mind Guy Claxton, 2006 The unconscious has had a long and chequered history For at least the last 4 000 years societies have concocted comforting fables in the face of the recurrent puzzles of human existence death dreaming madness possession inspiration that invariably rely on some notion of the unconscious Supernatural fairy stories need some internal proxy or contact point through which the influence of demons and spirits can flow And without such gods and forces some psychological machinery is needed to take over their work But what IS the unconscious Is it God s viceroy the soul Is it the locked ward of Freudian desire Is the subliminal mind the source of the sublime emotions of the Romantics Is it the mental microchip of cognitive science Or is it simply the brain

What's Wrong with Us? Colin Feltham, 2007-08-13 What is the scope of the human condition What are the origins of universal human problems What is wrong with education marriage religion and therapy How likely are we as humans to correct these problems Colin Feltham Professor of Critical Counselling Studies at Sheffield Hallam University UK and member of Crisis Forum for the Study of Crisis in the 21st Century argues that the current crises of the human condition are merely symptoms of a chronic wayward tendency otherwise branded in What s Wrong With Us as anthropathology The origins of human suffering are traced with interdisciplinary adeptness exploring the contemporary issues of human violence deceit patriarchy rapaciousness child abuse irrationality and capitalist greed Our human anthropathology is assessed as being at the heart of such problems This book breaks new ground in bringing many anthropathological themes together in a sustained frontal attack on dangerous human anachronisms We cannot be sure that we can solve our problems but we can be sure that denying them will protract and worsen the situation for both ourselves and our descendants A challenging and enlightening book for students and academics in counselling and psychotherapy psychology sociology philosophy and religion Also a gripping read for those with a general interest in our current social state

The Spectator, 2005 Possession Craig E.
