The Wooden Shepherdess New York Review S Classics:

Ford Madox Ford's Literary Contacts Paul Skinner, 2007 The controversial British writer Ford Madox Ford 1873 1939 is increasingly recognized as a major presence in early twentieth century literature This series of International Ford Madox Ford Studies was founded to reflect the recent resurgence of interest in him Each volume is based upon a particular theme or issue and relates aspects of Ford's work life and contacts to broader concerns of his time The present book is part of a large scale reassessment of his roles in literary history Ford is best known for his fiction especially The Good Soldier long considered a modernist masterpiece and Parade's End which Anthony Burgess described as the finest novel about the First World War and Samuel Hynes has called the greatest war novel ever written by an Englishman But he was a prolific writer in many different modes which include criticism of others writing and reminiscences of the many writers he had known One of the most striking features of his career is his close involvement with so many of the major international literary groupings of his time In the South East of England at the fin de siècle he collaborated for a decade with Joseph Conrad and befriended Henry James and H G Wells In Edwardian London he founded the English Review publishing these writers alongside his new discoveries Ezra Pound D H Lawrence and Wyndham Lewis After the war he moved to France founding the transatlantic review in Paris taking on Hemingway as a sub editor discovering another generation of Modernists such as Jean Rhys and Basil Bunting and publishing them alongside Joyce and Gertrude Stein He spent more time in America from the later 1920s spending time with Southern Agrarians and poets such as William Carlos Williams Charles Olson and Robert Lowell He was always a tireless promoter of younger writers reading manuscripts and recommending them to publishers This book takes Ford's literary contacts to include such creative friendships editorial involvements and influential biographical encounters and they form the most substantial central section on Contemporaries and Confreres covering figures like Proust Carlos Williams Rebecca West Herbert Read and Hemingway But it also explores contacts with literary texts The first section on Predecessors considers the impact of Ford's reading of Trollope George Eliot and Turgenev The final section discusses Successors writers such as Graham Greene Burgess and A S Byatt whose literary contacts with Ford have been as his admiring readers and eloquent critics Ford has been described as a writer's writer This volume reveals how true that has been and in how many ways as it sheds new light on his relationships with other writers both familiar and surprising It includes two pieces published here for the first time one by Ford himself on Turgenev the other a memoir about Ford by his contemporary Marie Belloc Lowndes the sister of Hilaire Belloc In Hazard Richard Hughes, 2012-08-29 The Archimedes is a modern merchant steamship in tip top condition and in the summer of 1929 it has been picking up goods along the eastern seaboard of the United States before making a run to China A little overloaded perhaps the oddly assorted cargo includes piles of old newspapers and heaps of tobacco the ship departs for the Panama Canal from Norfolk Virginia on a beautiful autumn day Before long the weather turns unexpectedly rough rougher in fact than even the most experienced members of the crew have ever encountered The Archimedes it turns out has been swept up in the vortex of an immense hurricane and for the next four days it will be battered and mauled by wind and waves as it is driven wildly off course Caught in an unremitting struggle for survival both the crew and the ship will be tested as never before Based on detailed research into an actual event Richard Hughes s tale of high suspense on the high seas is an extraordinary story of men under pressure and the unexpected ways they prove their mettle or crack Yet the originality art and greatness of In Hazard stem from something else Hughes s eerie fascination with the hurricane itself the inhuman force around which this wrenching tale of humanity at its limits revolves Hughes channels the furies of sea and sky into a piece of writing that is both apocalyptic and analytic In Hazard is an unforgettable defining work of modern adventure

Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007

,2008-02 A High Wind in Jamaica Richard Hughes,2010-06-23 Richard Hughes s celebrated short novel is a masterpiece of concentrated narrative Its dreamlike action begins among the decayed plantation houses and overwhelming natural abundance of late nineteenth century Jamaica before moving out onto the high seas as Hughes tells the story of a group of children thrown upon the mercy of a crew of down at the heel pirates A tale of seduction and betrayal of accommodation and manipulation of weird humor and unforeseen violence this classic of twentieth century literature is above all an extraordinary reckoning with the secret reasons and otherworldly realities of childhood
