I. What did the author say?

	The 13 colonies in North America were being ruled by the King of England.
	All of the colonists liked being ruled by England.
	The colonies became their own country after the war and called it the United States of America.

II. What did the author mean?

	The colonists were being ruled by a king who lived very far away and who did not know what life was like in the colonies.
	Most of the colonists wanted a new government to exist in the colonies.
	The founding fathers made a new country that was exactly like England but with a new name.

III. Do you agree with these statements?

	The King of England was not a good ruler of the colonies because he was too far away.
	The colonists needed to make their own government that did what they thought was best.
	It was a good idea for the colonists to make their own country that had a government that better suited them.
