Resources in Education, 1979     The Evolution of Language W. Tecumseh Fitch, 2010-04-01 Language more than anything else is what makes us human It appears that no communication system of equivalent power exists elsewhere in the animal kingdom Any normal human child will learn a language based on rather sparse data in the surrounding world while even the brightest chimpanzee exposed to the same environment will not Why not How and why did language evolve in our species and not in others Since Darwin's theory of evolution questions about the origin of language have generated a rapidly growing scientific literature stretched across a number of disciplines much of it directed at specialist audiences The diversity of perspectives from linguistics anthropology speech science genetics neuroscience and evolutionary biology can be bewildering Tecumseh Fitch cuts through this vast literature bringing together its most
