The Human Body H. Newell Martin,1896      Paul, the Stoicks, and the Body of Christ Michelle V. Lee,2006-07-20 At first glance Paul s words to the Corinthians about being the body of Christ seem simple and straightforward He compares them with a human body so that they may be encouraged to work together each member contributing to the good of the whole according to his or her special gift However the passage raises several critical questions which point to its deeper implications Does Paul mean that the community is like a body or is he saying that they are in some sense a real body What is the significance of being specifically the body of Christ Is the primary purpose of the passage to instruct on the correct use of spiritual gifts or is Paul making a statement about the identity of the Christian community Michelle Lee examines Paul s instructions in 1 Corinthians 12 14 against the backdrop of Hellenistic moral philosophy and especially Stoicism      The Cheshire Sheaf ... Francis Sanders,William Fergusson Irvine,John Brownbill,1883      Industrial and Manufacturing Chemistry Geoffrey Martin,1917      The Intellectual repository for the New Church.
