A number of these officers took their way to Egypt and the author of this book was one of the most successful of them all. He was made Pasha by the Khedive and he rendered that ruler honorable and efficient service. It was natural that Loring Pasha should have been led to give his Egyptian experiences durable shape and his book gives a clear and agreeably written account of the country. Such a writer has much more authority than the mere traveler. General Loring lived long in the country and in intimate relations with persons at the centre of affairs being with a man of thought and intelligence he could not with his opportunities fail to
