Teaching the Novel across the Curriculum Colin C. Irvine,2007-11-30

Instructors at all levels are being encouraged to teach writing in their courses even in subjects other than English. Because the novel reflects a broad set of human experiences and history it is the ideal vehicle for learning about a wide range of issues. This book helps educators learn how to incorporate novels in courses in English, the humanities, social and behavioral sciences and professional studies. The chapters focus on using the novel to explore ethical concerns, multiculturalism, history, social theory, psychology, social work and education. The book looks at major canonical works as well as graphic novels and popular literature. Language arts are at the forefront of education these days. Instructors at all levels are being encouraged to teach writing in their courses even if those courses cover subjects other than English. Literature instructors have long used fiction to teach composition. But because the novel reflects a broad range of human experiences and historical events it is the ideal medium for learning about contemporary social issues. This book helps educators learn how to use the novel in courses in English, the humanities, social and behavioral sciences and professional studies. The book is divided into broad sections on general education classes, multiculturalism literature classes, humanities courses, classes in social behavioral and political sciences and professional studies such as social work and teacher training. Each section includes chapters written by gifted teachers and provides a wealth of theoretical and practical information. While the book examines major canonical works such as Hard Times, Billy Budd and Invisible Man it also looks at graphic novels, science fiction and popular contemporary works such as Finishing School and Jarhead. Chapters reflect the personal successes of their authors and cite works for further reading.

The Invisible Man Herbert George Wells, 1897. In this renowned novel by H G Wells a heavily disguised man takes up residence at a rural English inn and begins performing secret experiments leading to intense curiosity from the locals. Eventually the mysterious man, a scientist who has discovered the key to invisibility, clashes with the villagers and progressively becomes more unhinged and dangerous as he uses his powers for self serving purposes. Published and set at the turn of the 20th century the book highlights the perils of unchecked scientific hubris.

The Invisible Man H. G. Wells, 2015-10-30. The Invisible Man starts with a stranger arriving at the town of Iping. He's a private guy which is a problem when you live in a town where the major export is gossip. The stranger doesn't get along with the villagers especially the people who own the inn where he's staying. He spends most of his time trying to do something scientific in his room. But eventually after the villagers rightfully accuse him of robbery the stranger snaps. He takes off all his clothes and reveals that he's wait for it invisible. The Invisible Man fights the village and flees leaving his important scientific notes behind. To get them back he forces a homeless dude named Marvel to help him. They go back to Iping and get the Invisible Man's stuff but the villagers attack and craziness ensues. The Invisible Man beats them to a pulp and wreaks some major havoc. At another town Port Stowe the Invisible Man steals money and drops it into Marvel's pockets. Like the lousy sidekick he is, Marvel runs away to Burdock money in hand or in pocket we guess. The IM tries to kill Marvel but a bunch of people at a bar fight him off. One person even shoots him but it's just a scratch. The Invisible Man takes shelter in a house that happens to be owned by an old college friend named Kemp and this is where we learn that our not so hero s name is Griffin While staying in his digs Griffin tells Kemp his back story story which is several chapters long and it is long Here s the gist he was poor and he wanted to study invisibility as most young people do so he stole money from his father who then committed suicide we re not entirely sure why Finally Griffin figured out the invisibility thing and proceeded to do a few things 1 burn down his landlord s building 2 wander around London 3 steal from a department store and 4 put on a ridiculous outfit from a theatrical costume shop and go to Iping to work Turns out Kemp had alerted the police to Griffin s whereabouts when he arrived but when they come to arrest him he escapes Remember he s invisible so it s not too tough Kemp works with the police to catch Griffin who in turn tries to catch Kemp In the end a bunch of people in Burdock gang up on the Invisible Man and kill him As he dies Griffin loses his invisibility and we get our first glimpse of the Visible Man Finally in the epilogue we learn that Marvel still has Griffin s scientific notes which probably have all sorts of cool inventions in them The Invisible Man H Wells,2015-02-28
