Special Needs provides a thorough review of the eye and vision care needs of patients with special needs. This book gives you a better understanding of the most frequently encountered developmental and acquired disabilities seen in the eye care practitioner's office. These disabilities include patients with autism, brain injury, Fragile X syndrome and Down syndrome as well as those with psychiatric illness, dual diagnosis and more. The text discusses in great detail the visual issues inherent in these populations and their possible treatment. A group of authors with approximately 500 years of experience in the field of eye care and special populations have been brought together to develop this comprehensive reference. It may appear that this book is written primarily for eye care practitioners such as optometrists and ophthalmologists while vision is the overriding topic, this book serves as an excellent resource for a multitude of professions including those engaged in occupational therapy, physical therapy, speech and language therapy, psychiatry, social work, pediatric medicine and special education.

Fundamentals of Child Study Edwin Asbury Kirkpatrick, 1917    The Visual Language of Painting Robert Nelson, 2010

Painting is a language that communicates visually. But how can we speak of it when its intelligence is embedded in sensory mysteries? Using his own evocative language, Robert Nelson analyses what the language of painting is made of, revealing how verbal language not only unlocks the unspoken, but how it keeps painting alive.

Educational Resources and Techniques, 1978    Fundamentals in Methods in Elementary Schools Joseph Kennedy, 1915    Modern Methods in High School Teaching Harl Roy Douglass, 1926

This volume addresses teachers and principals presenting a comprehensive treatment of the methods of teaching in high schools. The author assumes a familiarity on the part of his readers with the nature of the learning process, adolescence and the psychological foundations of interests and motives as they relate to whole-hearted pupil activity. The fundamentals of both theory and practice are set forth and an attempt has been made to outline and describe the newer types of procedure which are being employed in different subjects in the best secondary schools. Throughout the volume the attempt has been made clearly to represent practices rather than to advocate their adoption. The reader is permitted to draw his own conclusions. The book will appeal to the type of reader who wants to be intelligent about what is going on in high school teaching.
