A Young Lady's Diary of Five Years in China: 1829-1834 (Expanded, Annotated)

Harriet Low, My head I think resembles chaos I would somebody would put it in order You will be thankful that no one put Harriet Low s head in order before she penned this wonderful journal between 1829 and 1834 Far from her New England American home and her adored elder sister she kept up a meticulous record of her thoughts feelings and activities for five years She s at no loss for company abroad but at only 20 years old when she left home she despairs that she may end up a spinster We have been anticipating the time when we shall be ancient spinsters having become almost disgusted with the genus homo and almost determined to live a life of celibacy I shall yet espouse some poor unfortunate man just to be the torment of somebody s life This extremely entertaining and witty diary will provide you with a look into a world of young Americans abroad that will seem at once foreign and oh so familiar So much of Harriet s musings will strike you as remarkably modern We discussed beauty and accomplishments to night Intellect is the thing nowadays however Money seems to be the one thing needful the sine qua non of existence Oh romance where dost thou dwell Edited and published in 1900 by Harriet s daughter this jewel has long been out of print It is available for the first time in an affordable well formatted edition for e readers and smartphones Be sure to LOOK INSIDE or download a sample
