Topkapi sarayında yaşam Jean-Baptiste Tavernier,1984 Private and Royal Life in the Ottoman Palace Ilber Ortaylı,2014-08-07 Topkapi Palace was the official and primary residence of the Ottoman sultans for almost four centuries of their 624 year reign This illustrated guide to Topkapi Palace the heart of a vast transcontinental empire until the mid nineteenth century explores Ottoman history as it relates to specific sections of the palace Ortaylı a famed Turkish historian and scholar introduces the audience to the outer and inner sections of the palace as well as the family quarters providing them with profound background information about their functions architecture and decorations His references to the palace customs people and particular events present the reader with a living history Life after the Harem Betül İpşirli Argit,2020-10-29 The first study to explore the lives of female slaves of the Ottoman imperial court including the period following their manumission and transfer from the imperial palace Through an analysis of a wide range of hitherto unexplored primary sources Betül İpşirli Argit demonstrates that the manumission of female palace slaves and their departure from the palace did not mean the severing of their ties with the imperial court rather it signaled the beginning of a new kind of relationship that would continue until their death Demonstrating the diversity of experiences in non dynastic female agency in the early modern Ottoman world Life After the Harem shows how these evolving relationships had widespread implications for multiple parties from the manumitted female palace slaves to the imperial court and broader urban society In so doing İpşirli Argit offers not just a new way of understanding the internal politics and dynamics of the Ottoman imperial court but also a new way of understanding the lives of the actors within it On the Way to the "(Un)Known"? Doris Gruber,Arno Strohmeyer,2022-09-06 This volume brings together twenty two authors from various countries who analyze travelogues on the Ottoman Empire between the fifteenth and nineteenth centuries The travelogues reflect the colorful diversity of the genre presenting the experiences of individuals and groups from China to Great Britain The spotlight falls on interdependencies of travel writing and historiography geographic spaces and specific practices such as pilgrimages the hajj and the harem Other points of emphasis include the importance of nationalism the place and time of printing representations of fashion and concepts of masculinity and femininity By displaying close comparative and distant readings the volume offers new insights into perceptions of otherness the circulation of knowledge intermedial relations gender roles and digital analysis Ottoman Empire and European Theatre Vol. IV Michael Hüttler,Hans Ernst Weidinger,2016-05-23 The book series Ottomania researches cultural transfers between the Ottoman Empire and Europe with the performing arts as its focus In Ottoman Empire and European Theatre vol IV Seraglios in Theatre Music and Literature the series continues to explore one of the most popular subjects of eighteenth century art the seraglio and its harem This volume provides a deeper understanding of the seraglio s various manifestations in the artworks music and theatre of the Austrian Habsburg and central European regions including interconnections with Italy and France from the sixteenth to the nineteenth centuries The
