Topaz Moon Chiura Obata's Art Of The Internment:

Chiura Obata's Topaz Moon Chiura Obata, 2000 Presents the artist's sketches, sumi paintings and watercolors depicting the austerity, hardship, hope and beauty he discovered in the internment camp and includes a collection of his interviews and correspondence. Topaz Moon: Chiura Obata's Art of the Internment, 2000. The Sculpture of Ruth Asawa, Second Edition Timothy Anglin, Burgard, Daniell Cornell, 2020-07-14 An expanded edition of the definitive book on Ruth Asawa's fascinating life and her lasting contributions to American art. The work of American artist Ruth Asawa, 1926-2013, is brought into brilliant focus in this definitive book originally published to accompany the first complete retrospective of Asawa's career organized by the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco in 2006. This new edition features an expanded collection of essays and a detailed illustrated chronology that explore Asawa's fascinating life and her lasting contributions to American art. Beginning with her earliest works, drawings and paintings created in the 1940s while she was studying at Black Mountain College, this beautiful volume traces Asawa's flourishing career in San Francisco and her trajectory as a pioneering modernist sculptor who is recognized internationally for her innovative wire sculptures, public commissions and activism on behalf of public arts education. Through her lifelong experimentations with wire, especially its capacity to balance open and closed forms, Asawa invented a powerful vocabulary that contributed a unique perspective to the field of twentieth-century abstract sculpture. Working in a variety of nontraditional media, Asawa performed a series of remarkable metamorphoses leading viewers into a deeper awareness of natural forms by revealing their structural properties. Through her art, Asawa transfigured the commonplace into metaphors for life processes themselves. The Sculpture of Ruth Asawa establishes the importance of Asawa's work within a larger cultural context of artists who redefined art as a way of thinking and acting in the world rather than as merely a stylistic practice. This updated edition includes a new introduction and more than fifty new images as well as original essays that reflect on the impact of American political history on Asawa's artistic vision, her experience with printmaking and her friendship with photographer Imogen Cunningham. Contributors include Susan Ehrens, Mary Emma Harris, Karin Higa, Jacqueline Hoefer, Emily K. Doman, Jennings, Paul J. Karlstrom, John Kreidler, Susan Stauter, Colleen Terry and Sally B. Woodbridge. Published in association with the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco, FAMSF.

Artifacts of Loss Jane Elizabeth Dusselier, 2008 From 1942 to 1946, as America prepared for war, 120,000 people of Japanese descent were forcibly interned in harsh desert camps across the American West. In Artifacts of Loss, Jane E. Dusselier looks at the lives of these internees through the lens of their art. These camp-made creations included flowers made with tissue paper and shells, wood carvings of pets, left-behind furniture made from discarded apple crates, gardens grown next to their housing, anything to help alleviate the visual deprivation and isolation caused by their circumstances. Their crafts were also central in sustaining, reforming and inspiring new relationships. Creating, exhibiting, consuming, living with and thinking about art became embedded in the everyday patterns of camp life and helped provide internees with sustenance for mental emotional and psychic survival Dusselier urges her readers to consider these often overlooked folk crafts as meaningful political statements which are significant as material forms of protest and as representations of loss She concludes briefly with a discussion of other displaced people around the globe today and the ways in which personal and group identity is reflected in similar creative ways Art/Women/California, 1950-2000 Diana Burgess Fuller, Daniela Salvioni, 2002-05-29 This is the book on women's art I've been waiting for smart deeply rooted and up to date with an overdue focus on women of color that fills in the historical cracks Read it and run with it Lucy R Lippard author of The Pink Glass Swan Selected Essays on Feminist Art More than merely beautiful and ground breaking Art Women California 1950 2000 is also about the enriching interventions created by diverse women artists the effect of whose work is not only far reaching but has also opened up the very definition of American art It is about intellectual interdisciplinarity and the dialectical relationship between art and social context It is about the way various California cultures Native Latino Asian feminist immigrant politically active and virtual which are so different from the trope of the Western cowboy have intervened in that entity we imagine as America Elaine Kim editor of Dangerous Women Gender and Korean Nationalism Rich and provocative A pleasure to read and to look at Linda Nochlin author of The Body in Pieces The Fragment as a Metaphor of Modernity This book should greatly help everyone understand the remarkably diversified evolution of art in California which is largely due to the great influx of women and the transformative effect of a new feminist consciousness Arthur C Danto author of Philosophizing Art Selected Essays The Elusive Eden Richard B.
