The Handbook Of Reparations:

The Handbook of Reparations Pablo De Greiff,2008 This is a comprehensive study of reparation programmes containing a blend of case study analysis thematic papers and national legislation documents from leading scholars and practitioners

Justice, Responsibility and Reconciliation in the Wake of Conflict Alice MacLachlan,Allen Speight,2012-12-04

What are the moral obligations of participants and bystanders during and in the wake of a conflict How have theoretical understandings of justice peace and responsibility changed in the face of contemporary realities of war Drawing on the work of leading scholars in the fields of philosophy political theory international law religious studies and peace studies the collection significantly advances current literature on war justice and post conflict reconciliation Contributors address some of the most pressing issues of international and civil conflict including the tension between attributing individual and collective responsibility for the wrongs of war the trade offs made between the search for truth and demands for justice and the conceptual intricacies of coming to understand just what is meant by peace and conflict Individual essays also address concrete topics including the international criminal court reparations truces political apologies truth commissions and criminal trials with an eye to contemporary examples from conflicts in the Middle East Africa and North and South America

Unspeakable Truths 2e Priscilla B. Hayner,2010-09-13 This book is a definitive exploration of truth commissions around the world and the anguish injustice and the legacy of hate they are meant to absolve What is Reparative Justice? Margaret Urban Walker,2010 The Oxford Handbook of Crime and Criminal Justice Michael Tonry,2011-09-29 A comprehensive and accessible overview of the operation of the American criminal justice system This handbook's extensive coverage of the criminal justice system in the U S makes it an important reference for students and scholars in criminal justice law and public policy

Thomas Ruffin and the Perils of Public Homage ,2009 South Africa's Truth and Reconciliation Commission Muhammed Haron,2009 The South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission An Annotated Bibliography is a much needed reference work for those who are studying and pursuing the outcomes of Truth Commissions around the world However it is also a valuable tool for all researchers from diverse disciplines For example those specialising in the fields of sociology political science and literature will find material that appeals and is relevant to their areas of research There is little doubt that students and researchers pursuing courses such as Conflict Resolution Good Governance and International Relations would find this compilation more than beneficial since it covers not only an assortment of themes but it also includes ingenious cartoons by the famous Zapiro and memorable photographs by George Hallet In addition the compiler also inserted a select number of poems that dealt with the issues and themes related to the TRC process What Happened to the Women? Ruth Rubio-Marín,2006 What happens to women whose lives are affected by human rights violations What happens to their testimony in court or in front of a truth commission Women face a double marginalization under authoritarian regimes and during and after violent conflicts Yet reparations programs are rarely designed to address the needs of women victims What Happened to the Women Gender and Reparations for Human Rights Violations emphasizes the necessity of a gender dimension in reparations programs to improve their handling of female victims and their families A joint project of the International Center for Transitional Justice and Canada s International Development Research Centre What Happened to the Women includes studies of gender and reparations policies in Guatemala Peru Rwanda Sierra Leone South Africa and Timor Leste Contributors represent a wide range of fields related to transitional justice and include international human rights lawyers members of truth and reconciliation commissions and NGO representatives Children and Truth Commissions ,2010 The Pursuit of International Criminal Justice M. Cherif Bassiouni,2010 This publication includes a survey of world conflicts that occurred between 1945 and 2008 the level of victimization they produced and the subsequent post conflict justice PCJ mechanisms which were applied It is intended to show the scope of the problem faced by international criminal justice ICJ and how the International Criminal Court ICC needs to shape its mission and approach to address ICJ needs and expectations From publisher s description The Uganda Living Law Journal ,2008 Michigan Journal of International Law ,2006 Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical Association American Philosophical Association,2022-11 List of members in v 1 Foreign Affairs ,2006 Disarming the Past Ana Cutter Patel,Pablo De Greiff,Lars Waldorf,2009 For the past twenty years international donors have invested heavily in large scale disarmament demobilization and reintegration DDR programs while at the same time transitional justice measures have proliferated bringing truth justice and reparations to those recovering from state violence and civil war Yet DDR programs are seldom deconstructed to discover whether they truly achieve their justice related aims Additionally transitional justice mechanisms rarely articulate strategies for coordinating with DDR Disarming the Past examines the connections and failures between these two initiatives within peacebuilding contexts and evaluates future links between DDR programs and the aims of transitional justice The outcome of a substantial research project initiated by the International Center for Transitional Justice ICTJ this book is crucial for anyone interested in effective interventions and enduring outcomes Savings and Development ,2007 Book Review Digest ,1924 International Legal Materials , Law & Inequality ,2014 Michigan State Journal of International Law ,2007
