Testimonies Four Plays

William B. Cairns

Testimonies Four Plays:

Testimonies Emily Mann, 1997 The first major collection by playwright Emily Mann contains four powerful docudramas Based on extensive interviews of real people's experiences these plays explore various moral issues and questions that still resonate in America today Annulla An Autobiography is a solo piece featuring the reflections of an elderly Jewish woman who survived the Holocaust by pretending to be Arya Jerry Talmer of the New York Post calls Annulla one bangup 90 minutes of theatre I don't know when I've been stimulated as much by anything on the living stage Still Life is composed of interviews with a Vietnam War veteran with PTSD the pregnant wife he physically and emotionally abuses and the mistress who finds herself entranced by his passion and violence This Obie Award winning play is a powerful affair full of passion and viability Mann offers no easy answers or pat solutions she simply invites us into these three characters' lives Los Angeles Times Execution of Justice follows the trial of the former policeman who shot San Francisco Mayor George Moscone and openly gay City Supervisor Harvey Milk in 1979 Called thought provoking a taut courtroom drama New York Times Execution of Justice is theatre reasserting its claim on the country's moral conscience Washington Post Greensboro A Requiem is a particularly all American tragedy New York Times as Mann interviews those involved in the largely unreported 1979 massacre of unarmed demonstrators by members of the Ku Klux Klan Greensboro police force and FBI Forbes calls Greensboro a provocation a potent exposé of the less than human thing which fuels the politics of hate and injustice in America

Documentary Trial Plays in Contemporary American Theater Jacqueline O'Connor, 2013-06-21 From the Chicago Conspiracy Trial and the O J Simpson trial to the Clarence Thomas Anita Hill congressional hearings legal and legislative proceedings in the latter part of the twentieth century kept Americans spellbound Situated on the shifting border between imagination and the law trial plays edit arrange and reproduce court records media coverage and first person interviews transforming these elements into a performance In this first book length critical study of contemporary American documentary theater Jacqueline O'Connor examines in depth ten such plays all written and staged since 1970 and considers the role of the genre in re-creating and revising narratives of significant conflicts in contemporary history Documentary theater she shows is a particularly appropriate and widely utilized theatrical form for engaging in debate about tensions between civil rights and institutional power the inconsistency of justice and challenges to gender norms For each of the plays discussed including The Trial of the Catonsville Nine Unquestioned Integrity The Hill Thomas Hearings and The Laramie Project O'Connor provides historical context and a brief production history before considering the trial the play focuses on Grouping plays historically and thematically she demonstrates how dramatic representation advances our understanding of the law's power while revealing the complexities that hinder society's pursuit of justice
