Critic Edward W. Said, 2025-10-21 A sweeping and intellectually rigorous work of literary criticism that moves the field forward from one of the preeminent public scholars Said's book is relaxed and discursive original immensely learned fluently written John Bayley The New York Times Book Review Edward W. Said author of Beginnings and the controversial yet seminal Orientalism is one of the most acclaimed public intellectuals of our time In this sweeping and rigorous work of literary criticism he pushes the field even further forward Moving from Derrida to Foucault from Marxism to psychoanalysis and from Swift to Conrad Said argues that the dogmas of the dominant culture have crippled our engagement with literature forcing a text to meet the requirements of theory while ignoring the tethers that bind it to the living world Provocatively Said advocates for freedom of consciousness and for responsiveness to history to the exigencies of the text to political social and human values and to the heterogeneity of human experience The World the Text and the Critic asks daring questions investigates problems of urgent significance and gives a subtle yet powerful new meaning to the enterprise of criticism in modern society

Text Genetics in Literary Modernism and other Essays Hans Walter Gabler, 2018-02-20 This collection of essays from world renowned scholar Hans Walter Gabler contains writings from a decade and a half of retirement spent exploring textual criticism genetic criticism and literary criticism In these sixteen stimulating contributions he develops theories of textual criticism and editing that are inflected by our advance into the digital era structurally analyses arts of composition in literature and music and traces the cultural implications discernible in book design and in the canonisation of works of literature and their authors Distinctive and ambitious these essays move beyond the concerns of the community of critics and scholars Gabler responds innovatively to the issues involved and often endeavours to re think their urgencies by bringing together the orthodox tenets of different schools of textual criticism He moves between a variety of topics ranging from fresh genetic approaches to the work of James Joyce and Virginia Woolf to significant contributions to the theorisation of scholarly editing in the digital age Written in Gabler's fluent style these rich and elegant compositions are essential reading for literary and textual critics scholarly editors readers of James Joyce New Modernism specialists and all those interested in textual scholarship and digital editing under the umbrella of Digital Humanities
