Rowing in Eden Barbara Rogan,2012-07-17 ROWING IN EDEN Sam is not the only tormented soul in the tiny upstate village of Old Wickham

There s also Peter Quinn a brilliant troubled fourteen year old with quick fists no past and a truckload of attitude Although a judge found him innocent Peter knows better Some things he figures it don t matter why you did em only that you did em On its surface Old Wickham New York is a Norman Rockwell montage of red cheeked youngsters skating on ponds dogs frolicking in the snow and villagers huddled around wood burning stoves Yet someone in this idyllic community has been setting fires Suspicions divide the village along the usual fault lines Scapegoats are sought outsiders shunned The back room of the country store gives rise to a Greek chorus of collective rage In this crucible of distrust unlooked for alliances are forged old alliances are tested and no one emerges unchanged Alice Hoffman hails Barbara Rogan as a masterful story teller The New York Times praises her as a passionate writer whose prose is as vivid as lightning bolts Now with Rowing in Eden a morally complex story about friendship love marriage and family in other words all the things that matter most Barbara Rogan not only fulfills but generously exceeds the expectations of fans and reviewers alike
