Games So Fun Kids Won t Realize They re Learning Teaching kids to read has never been easier thanks to these 60 incredible hands on activities Help your child master their ABCs practice spelling three four and even five letter words and write their very own sentences all while they draw with crayons sculpt with playdough and build with building blocks Heather McAvan has spent over a decade teaching children to read both in the classroom at home and online and is an absolute genius at creating reading and writing games that are quick to set up easy to follow and above all an adventure for kids This book is perfect for children in any stage of their reading journey whether they've had some practice or are just beginning. Activities start with the basics and work up from there so kids can gradually build upon each new skill. And with Heather's lessons incorporating the toys, games and art projects children love, they'll spend the afternoon playing nearly forgetting they're learning one of life's most important skills. Help your child practice letter sounds with fun Bubble Wrap Pop, a few bubbles and see if they can pronounce the letters underneath. Graduate to spelling games and compete head to head in a round of word dominoes. Hone their reading skills with a game of Twister. Get the whole family involved and laugh the day away as you challenge each other to read out the words on each dot. With activities that are hands on and engaging, children will have a blast while learning a life long skill.

Let's Read! Elizabeth Crosby Stull, 2000. This unique resource helps educators spark young children's interest in learning the alphabet and develop beginning reading skills right from the beginning to the close of school. Included are over 500 ready-to-use individual and classroom activities designed to be used sequentially from one month to the next to build skills, relate reading to other curriculum areas and foster children's enthusiasm for books and learning to read. All activities are organized into nine monthly sections September through May/June and include over 100 activity sheets. Each month includes a list of 10 picture books for daily reading, phonics and other basic skills instructions, ABC Marching Band Letters for learning letter sound connections, reading links to holidays and special events, reading links to writing, math, social studies, science, health, author of the month, studies and activities, plus 10-13 illustrated reproducible activities.
