Technology for the Stars: Extending Our Reach, 1996 Law and Policy for a New Economy Melissa K.

Scanlan, 2017-05-26 This book makes the case for a New Environmentalism and using a systems change approach takes the reader through ideas for reorienting the economy It addresses the laws and policies needed to support the emergence of a new economy across a variety of major areas from energy to food across common pool resources and shifting investments to capitalize locally connected and mission driven businesses The authors take the approach that the challenges are much broader than setting parameters around pollution and go to the heart of the dominant global political economy It explores the values needed to transform our current economic system into a new economy supportive of ecological integrity social justice and vibrant democracy

Religious Transhumanism and Its Critics

Arvin M. Gouw, Brian Patrick Green, Ted Peters, 2022-03-10 Why do representatives of different religious traditions find the transhumanist vision of the future not only theologically compatible but even inspiring Transhumanism is a global movement seeking radical human enhancement The trans in transhumanism marks the transition from the present stage in human evolution into the future namely post human existence Containing chapters written by adherents to a variety of religious traditions Religious Transhumanism and Its Critics provides first hand testimony to the value of the transhumanist vision perceived by the religious mind In addition the contributors critique both secular and religious transhumanism in light of realistic science and commitment to social justice

Museum Objects, Health and Healing Brenda Cowan, Ross Laird, Jason McKeown, 2019-10-02 Museum Objects Health and Healing provides an innovative and interdisciplinary study of the relationship between objects health and healing Shedding light on the primacy of the human need for relationships with objects the book explores what kind of implications these relationships might have on the exhibition experience Merging museum and object studies as well as psychotherapy and the psychology of well being the authors present a new theory entitled Psychotherapeutic Object Dynamics which provides a cross disciplinary study of the relationship between objects health and well being Drawing on primary research in museums psychotherapeutic settings and professional practice throughout the US Canada Bosnia Herzegovina and the UK the book provides an overview of the theory s origins the breadth of its practical applications on a global level and a framework for further understanding the potency of objects in exhibitions and daily life Museum Objects Health and Healing will be essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students interested in museum studies material culture mental
