Readers relationships with bestsellers bring into view their practices of book selection and their navigation of book recommendation culture. Based on three years of original research 2019-2021 including a quantitative survey with readers, interviews with social media influencers and qualitative work with international Gen Z readers in a private Instagram chat space, the authors highlight three core actions contemporary multimodal readers make: choosing, connecting and responding in a transmedia era where on- and offline media practices co-exist. The contemporary multimodal reader or the MMR3 they argue illustrates the pervasiveness of recommendation culture, reliance on trusted others and an ethic of responsiveness.
