people have access to the internet worldwide and 4.7 billion people use social media. SM. Ultimately 93% of those with internet access own at least one SM account that is more than half the population worldwide. Through time, companies found new marketing strategies which reached active people on SM. These platforms are necessary to reach Generation Z people born in the late 1990s. They are different and cannot be reached in the same way as they watch Netflix instead of TV or listen to Spotify instead of the radio, for example. Influencer marketing became a 10 billion industry in 2020. Influencers share their lives on SM networks. Due to their high reach, they receive offers from companies for cooperation. Influencers' followers admire and trust their recommendations due to their personal and authentic representation. While advertising products, influencers show how to use them, where to buy them, and give their opinion. For higher sales, influencers often receive promo codes for a discount or free products for each order.

A Few Celebrities Made Their Debuts in the Wake of Their Quarantine Boredom and You Too Can Join the Train. With each passing day, it seems as if more of your favorite celebrities are on TikTok, having finally decided to try the trending app after getting stuck indoors with nothing more pressing to do. For many, staying at home and social distancing has become the norm. Celebrities and everyday people turn to TikTok to connect with fans and followers and discuss best practices amid the ongoing pandemic. It's been a while since TikTok disrupted the worldwide social networking world in 2018, and a lot of things have changed since then. TikTok regards itself as the spot for short-form mobile videos. For example, the Washington Post recruited a TikTok app expert. BuzzFeed, a digital media company, is hiring teens to handle the election coverage on TikTok. The Verge reported that Justin Bieber was anxious for his single "Yummy" to go viral on TikTok. Celebrities including Reese Witherspoon and Snoop Dogg have opened accounts on TikTok. Teenagers and young adults are going crazy for TikTok because of its flexibility to allow them express their creativity and humorous side.

Do you want to know what TikTok is? What TikTok account you should make? Where TikTok draft videos are saved? Where TikTok originated? Why TikTok is popular? Why TikTok is good?
