

A photograph of a Regal movie theater at night. The building is illuminated with blue and orange lights. The Regal logo, a stylized 'R' inside an orange hexagon, is prominently displayed on the upper part of the facade. To the right of the logo, the word 'REGAL' is written in large, orange, block letters. On the left side of the image, there is a vertical sign with the letters 'MU' inside a circular emblem. A large, white, bold text overlay is positioned on the left side of the image, reading 'HOW DO MOVIES AND THEATERS MAKE MONEY?'. The text is set against a dark background that appears to be a silhouette of a person or a large plant. The overall scene is a nighttime urban setting with palm trees visible in the background.

Popular Culture in Hong Kong After the National Security Law, 2020-2022 Janet Ng, 2024-11-11 In this study Ng examines the aftermath of the massive protests in 2019 and the implementation of the National Security Law in Hong Kong. Despite 2 years of fluctuating COVID measures and social constraints, the city witnessed an unparalleled cultural resurgence after the enactment of the National Security Law in 2020. This book explores Hong Kong beyond the end of the Anti Extradition Bill Movement in 2019 to examine what happened afterward: how society repaired itself, how the people of the city resumed their everyday life, and what this everyday life entails. Ng examines the social debates and conversations during these 2 years, analyzing a wide range of creative projects in the city from television shows, popular music, and social media to literary writings. She describes the difficulties, emotional experiences, and also daily strategies to repair local life, recreate a self-identity, and reclaim the city's narrative against the pressures from China. This book is a valuable resource for researchers, scholars, students, and general readers interested in popular culture and society and the global uprisings of the first decades of the twenty-first century. The study, supported by detailed research, also makes this essential reading for those with a specialized interest in global studies and China and Hong Kong studies. Box Office, 1951

Latinx Ciné in the Twenty-First Century Frederick Luis Aldama, 2019-09-24 Today's Latinx motion pictures are built on the struggles and victories of prior decades. Earlier filmmakers threw open doors and cleared new paths for those of the twenty-first century to willfully reconstruct Latinx epics as well as the daily tragedies and triumphs of Latinx lives. Twenty-first-century Latinx film offers much to celebrate, but as noted pop culture critic Frederick Luis Aldama writes, there's still room to be purposefully critical. In Latinx Ciné in the Twenty-First Century, contributors offer groundbreaking scholarship that does both: bringing together a comprehensive presentation of contemporary film and filmmakers from all corners of Latinx culture. The book's seven sections cover production techniques and evolving genres, profile those behind and in front of the camera, and explore the distribution and consumption of contemporary Latinx films. Chapters delve into issues that are timely, relevant, and influential, including representation or the lack thereof, identity and stereotypes, hybridity, immigration and detention, historical recuperation, and historical amnesia. With its capacious range and depth of vision, this timeless volume of cutting edge scholarship blazes new paths in understanding the full complexities of twenty first century Latinx filmmaking
