WHO guideline on country pharmaceutical pricing policies, 2020-09-29 In recent years high prices of pharmaceutical products have posed challenges in high and low income countries alike In many instances high prices of pharmaceutical products have led to significant financial hardship for individuals and negatively impacted on healthcare systems ability to provide population wide access to essential medicines Pharmaceutical pricing policies need to be carefully planned carried out and regularly checked and revised according to changing conditions Strong well thought out policies can guide well informed and balanced decisions to achieve affordable access to essential health products This guideline replaces the 2015 WHO guideline on country pharmaceutical pricing policies revised to reflect the growing body of literature since the last evidence review in 2010 This update also recognizes country experiences in managing the prices of pharmaceutical products   The Deal ,2007
