Truth Serum A Memoir

Maureen O'Connor

Truth Serum A Memoir:

Truth Serum Bernard Cooper, 1996 Cooper offers his most moving and poignant effort yet. In a memoir at once affecting witty and dead on accurate he gives us the chance to accompany him as he reinvents memory from Theresa Sanchez the worldly and sophisticated girl who sat behind him in ninth grade algebra to the events surrounding his mother's purchase of a Kenmore freezer to his experience in 1974 with a psychiatrist who mainlined him with a truth telling cocktail intended to reduce the frequency and intensity of the author's sexual fantasies involving men. The Memoir and the Memoirist Thomas Larson, 2007 The memoir is the most popular and expressive literary form of our time. Writers embrace the memoir and readers devour it propelling many memoirs by relative unknowns to the top of the best seller list. Writing programs challenge authors to disclose themselves in personal narrative. Memoir and personal narrative urge writers to face the intimacies of the self and ask what is true. In The Memoir and the Memoirist critic and memoirist Thomas Larson explores the craft and purpose of writing this new form. Larson guides the reader from the autobiography and the personal essay to the memoir a genre focused on a particularly emotional relationship in the author's past an intimate story concerned more with who is remembering and why than with what is remembered. The Memoir and the Memoirist touches on the nuances of memory of finding and telling the truth and of disclosing one's deepest self. It explores the craft and purpose of personal narrative by looking in detail at more than a dozen examples by writers such as Mary Karr Frank McCourt Dave Eggers Elizabeth Wurtzel Mark Doty Nuala O Faolain Rick Bragg and Joseph Lelyveld to show what they reveal about themselves. Larson also opens up his own writing and that of his students to demonstrate the hidden mechanics of the writing process. For both the interested reader of memoir and the writer wrestling with the craft The Memoir and the Memoirist provides guidance and insight into the many facets of this provocative and popular art form. OK2BG Jack Dunsmoor, 2015 OK2BG is narrative nonfiction a Memoir about a guy who wants to be a Mentor preferably to a teenager so they can have a decent meaningful conversation about stuff preferably with a kid at risk or just otherwise lost in order to help both the teenager as well as the determined subject of this story realize their unique potential find or reinforce their place in the world. Overall a chronicle about the author's attempt over several years to understand the question of why do I want to be a Mentor which eventually helps him become a more insightful person. Subsequently in September 2010 after a plague of teen suicides Jack turns his attention to researching gay biographies into optimistically appropriate groups of books for gay kids at risk from bullying. After 5 years Jack has categorized 2 000 books in the form of Memoirs Biographies Autobiographies written by or about 1 000 allegedly gay men. The primary message in OK2BG is to read reassess before you run asunder. Truth Serum, 2002 Writing Life Stories Bill Roorbach, 2008-07-01 How to Make Memories into Memoirs Ideas into Essays and Life into Literature. From drawing a map of a remembered neighborhood to signing a form releasing yourself to take risks in your work Roorbach offers innovative techniques that will trigger ideas for all writers. Writing Life Stories is a classic text that appears on countless
