If you love the versatility of working with wool and are looking for a new crafting addiction this book will get you started on the wonderful hobby of needle felting. With projects ranging from flowers, sculpted birds and animals, there is a variety of fun ideas to choose from. The book also contains resources for finding suppliers for any materials you might need. There's also a chapter introducing wet felting and needle felting combined and another that offers lovely gift ideas for family and friends as well as seasonal ideas. Staging the Promises Deana Jovanović,2025-01-15 Staging the Promises reveals how inhabitants of Bor, a Serbian copper processing and mining town that lived through prosperous Yugoslav times and a post socialist decline, were the audience. Theatrically performed promises of aspirational futures. Deana Jovanović chronicles the efforts of the copper processing company and the town's authorities to theatrically perform promises of better economic, urban, environmental, infrastructural and post industrial futures. Her book asks: What impact did the staging of promises have on the residents? What temporal, material and political effects did these performances generate? How did they shape the citizens' futures and their present? Jovanović offers many ethnographic examples of ambivalence in people's orientation to their futures while residents balanced hope with despair, disillusionment and dismay. Staging the Promises highlights how the performances shaped the present and how, in a Gramscian twist, they sustained hope alongside power dynamics that residents often criticized. Staging the Promises assesses the performative ways through which contemporary capitalist futures are remade. For Jovanović, Bor

represents a site that reflects a current global trend staging the promises of enhanced futures today play a significant role in contemporary populist politics Through them she argues distant futures become gradually withdrawn from people s horizons
