Wordarrows Gerald Robert Vizenor, 2003-01-01 With wry humor and imaginative acuity noted writer Gerald Vizenor offers compelling glimpses of modern Native American life and the different ways that Native Americans and whites interact fight and resolve their conflicts The elusive borderland between white and Native American cultures is further complicated by exchanges of money services language and skills that make up what Vizenor calls the new fur trade When Native Americans resist dominance they fight back incisively and creatively with humor in the strategic word wars of survivance over victimry Vizenor illuminates the troubling encounters and distant reaches of this modernist fur trade through his creative narratives Especially memorable is the reincarnation of General George Custer as the head of Native American programs and the mystifying play of words between charity agencies and Native Americans Several of Vizenor's stories focus on a so called urban reservation Franklin Avenue in Minneapolis In the last section Vizenor
