An Introduction to Religious and Theological Studies, Second Edition Cyril Orji,2021-01-07 An Introduction to Religious and Theological Studies walks students through topical issues to be encountered in the study of the Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam as these religions encounter other religions in the context of the wider ecumenism The text is written from a Christian point of view and aims at helping students understand that to be Christian is to be ecumenical African Traditional Religions ATRs has been included in this survey to provide background for the religious traditions and cultures of peoples of Africa as Christianity moves inexorably southward The book has been written with undergraduate general education students in mind including meeting the needs of those in seminaries and theological institutes

From Truth and truth Francis Etheredge,2016-04-26 The final book of this trilogy explores reason at work in the nature of faith cf Fides et Ratio 43 indeed although faith is of its nature different from reason faith cannot exist except through grace assisted reason Volume One briefly meditated on the metaphysics of meaning which entailed considering the intimate interrelationship of truth and existence In this volume however it becomes clear that there is an intrinsic complementarity in the very nature of created being a complementarity between the literal and spiritual sense of what exists Thus for example a seed is both what actually exists and at the same time it can adequately express the beginning of the supernatural life sown in the sacrament of Baptism This leads to an almost literary argument for there being a single cause of all creation in that there is an incredible coherence of meaning throughout the whole More specifically the book discusses various questions of a bioethical nature and more generally offers a radical investigation of the nature of man male and female for in a word the origin nature and action of the human person require constant reciprocal reflection Thus there are various essays on different aspects of man male and female ranging from a consideration of God expressing the mystery of the Blessed Trinity through our participation in His own Being to the transition from a Jewish to a Christian understanding of marriage to a marital spirituality Finally faith in action ranges from being open to life to pilgrimages as a family and the slow but real discovery that there is a radical nature to our salvation in Christ that even if natural truth leads inexorably to the trembling outreaches of reason there is nevertheless a gratuitous Revelation which comes to meet and develop the life of us all

Science, Self-Knowledge and Spirituality Patrick Bernard Crean,2011 This creative concise book is a perfect primer for those curious about or challenged by the works of Bernard J F Lonergan SJ CC 1904

1984 the Canadian philosopher theologian and economist best known for his worldview of the universe which brings together science self knowledge and spirituality Crean not only captures the essence of Lonergan's major works such as Insight a Study of Human Understanding 1957 and Method in Theology 1972 he also extends it through a unique feedback model of human consciousness providing a practical and life changing application of Lonergan's thought Cover Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton,1994 Rewriting the Word "God" Romana Huk,2025 Innovative poetry philosophy theology and new sciences converge in the project of rewriting the word God In Rewriting the Word God Romana Huk examines the substantive connections between innovative poetry of the last century and contemporary theology and philosophy Along the way we encounter ten poets who have without abandoning their inherited or chosen faith traditions radically rethought conceptualizations of divinity human ontology and the real From the startlingly proto phenomenological encounters with nature by Gerard Manley Hopkins to the post deconstructive pursuit of oracular speech in Fanny Howe these poets have found inspiration in a wide range of sources from ancient religious texts to modern philosophical movements But what unites them is their willingness to continually change experiment and challenge the status quo both in their religious beliefs and their poetic practice Huk shows how these poets have used their work to explore ultimate questions of life and death meaning and purpose and the relationship between humans and materiality humans and other humans which for these poets sheds light on humanity's relationship with the divine She also highlights the ways in which they have engaged with social and political issues in their poetry to speak out against injustice and oppression Rewriting the Word God is a thought provoking and inspiring work that will challenge current perceptions of both religion and poetry from new positions at the intersection of faith art philosophy science literary theory and culture Scripture Francis Etheredge,2014-06-19 Scripture is an amazing word this is a word that both acts at the heart of a person's life and begets a testimony like itself The more a person looks into the depths of this word the clearer it is that there is both real human authorship and an incredibly subtle presence of the divine Author There are not however two words but one mysteriously enriched word of God a word at once ancient and ever open to the challenges of contemporary questions and concerns Secondly if dialogue is a characteristic of God Scripture expresses this through the multitude of voices through which it is written So whether it is a matter of listening to this word in the Church drawing on foundational studies on the biblical text or researching questions in embryology philosophy theology marriage and ecumenism a person is drawn into an amazingly fertile divine human dialogue Indeed in the end it is impossible to express the number of human beings who are in this dialogue and in that very impossibility there is a glimpse of the mystery of God calling us to a dynamic communion Finally given the great challenge of thinking that a person is so immersed in a subjectivism that drowns inter personal dialogue the word of God comes to strengthen the search for truth and facilitates the investigations that transcend individuals groups nations cultures and times For Scripture cannot be more centred in a time a place a people it cannot be more subjective in its account of an immense variety of human experience But then the very historical consistency of the fact that this heritage of utterly human experience has been able to speak to mankind as a whole at any time in any place in any culture is an incredibly convincing testimony that this is a unique word a word that both arises out of a profound anthropology of man and can destroy isolation and effect communion This book then takes up these questions both intensely personal and profoundly contemporary and lets the words Listen Israel resound throughout its pages

Persons in Community Ronald Nicolson, 2008 Is there a distinctive African perspective on right and wrong Do ethical frameworks differ across cultures Is there such a thing as a common global ethic Do traditional African ethical views have anything to contribute to this global ethic Can traditional African ethics survive in a world increasingly dominated by a single global economy The contributors to this book show that there are distinctive common strands in African ethical views although these need to be examined and challenged They apply these strands to very different contexts the worlds of business medicine government political change and gender relationships The book reveals that despite their rootedness in a past culture African ethics are in a continuous state of development and change and have a considerable contribution to make to an emerging global ethic This book demands that the African voice is heard The Sins and Virtues of Prime-time Television Kendra Lee Gale,2001 This paper is a content analysis of the moral character of fictional characters on popular prime time American television programs Sports Law and Regulation Joseph Gordon Hylton,Paul Martin Anderson,1999 Thomas Merton and the Inclusive Imagination Ross Labrie,2001 In Thomas Merton and the Inclusive Imagination Ross Labrie reveals the breadth of Merton s intellectual reach by taking an original and systematic look at Merton s thought which is generally regarded as eclectic and unsystematic Firestorm Paul Addison,Jeremy A. Crang,2006-08-24 Firestorm assembles a cast of distinguished scholars to review the origins conduct and consequences of the World War II U S and British raids on Dresden Here is a panoramic reassessment of the evidence and the issues including the question of whether the bombing of the city constitutes a war crime Firestorm cogently demonstrates the reasons why Dresden has come to symbolize the military and ethical questions involved in the waging of total war St. Martín de Porres Alex García-Rivera,1995 The little stories and the traditions that grew up around St Martin de Porres are fascinating in themselves and every bit as charming as those told of St Francis of Assisi But as Garcia Rivera shows in this book these deceptively simple stories are equally the story of a submerged consciousness of resistance on the part of the marginalized peoples of Latin America For the first time Garcia Rivera unpacks these stories using the semiotic method and insights garnered from the works of Robert Schreier Eugene Genovese and Antonio Gramsci
