Transmedial Perspectives on Humour and Translation Loukia Kostopoulou, Vasiliki Misiou, 2023-12-22 This innovative collection spotlights the role of media crossovers in humour translation and how the latter is conveyed through new means of communication. The volume offers an in-depth exploration of the entanglements of film, theatre, literature, TV, the Internet, etc. within the framework of transmediality and their influence on the practice of translating humour. Chapters focus on the complex web of interrelationships shaped by and shaping the processes of transformation and adaptation that take place across media and across languages and cultures. Situating translation practices and innovations within an interdisciplinary context, the volume underscores the hybrid nature and complex semiotics of humour and the plurality of possibilities for new insights that contemporary approaches offer, driven by technological advancements in the industry. The book will be of particular interest to scholars and researchers in the fields of Translation Studies, Humour Studies, Audiovisual Translation, Media Studies, and Adaptation Studies.

Internet Comedy Television Series, 1997-2015 Vincent Terrace, 2016-02-12 Created around the world and available only on the web. Internet television series are independently produced mostly low budget shows that often feature talented but unknown performers. Typically financed through crowd funding, they are filmed with borrowed equipment and volunteer casts and crews, and viewers find them through word of mouth or by chance. The fourth in a series covering Internet TV, this book takes a comprehensive look at 1121 comedy series produced exclusively for online audiences. Alphabetical entries provide websites, dates, casts, credits, episode lists, and storylines.
