Business Book Awards A smart and accessible cultural history Los Angeles Times A portrait by turns celebratory skeptical and surprisingly moving of one of America s most iconic institutions from an author who might be the most influential design critic writing now LARB Few places have been as nostalgized or as maligned as malls Since their birth in the 1950s they have loomed large as temples of commerce the agora of the suburbs In their prime they proved a powerful draw for creative thinkers such as Joan Didion Ray Bradbury and George Romero who understood the mall s appeal as both critics and consumers Yet today amid the aftershocks of financial crises and a global pandemic as well as the rise of online retail the dystopian husk of an abandoned shopping center has become one of our era s defining images Conventional wisdom holds that the mall is dead But what was the mall really And have rumors of its demise been greatly exaggerated In her acclaimed The Design of Childhood Alexandra Lange uncovered the histories of toys classrooms and playgrounds She now turns her sharp eye to another subject we only think we know She chronicles postwar architects and merchants invention of the mall revealing how the design of these marketplaces played an integral role in their cultural ascent In Lange s perceptive account the mall becomes newly strange and rich with contradiction Malls are environments of both freedom and exclusion of consumerism but also of community Meet Me by the Fountain is a highly entertaining and evocative promenade through the mall s rise fall and ongoing reinvention for readers of any generation
